Latest teen shows don't reflect reality ... or do they?

By Jacqueline Cutler
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Cover story

The worst predicaments the Beav got himself into could always be straightened out after a few minutes in the den with his father. Father really did know best in those grainy black-and-whites that dealt with teen-agers — as America did then — as tall children.

TV families have changed considerably since. On ABC's "Once and Again," young Grace Manning's (Julia Whelan) problems aren't as easily solvable as those of the Cleaver boys, and her single mom, Lily (Sela Ward), has to struggle as Ward and June never did to find time for the kids. Nevertheless, she tries.

But the teen-age characters on "Once and Again" and The WB Network's "7th Heaven" are becoming an endangered species in television land. Most TV teens live in a world where the parents are seldom if ever seen, let alone involved in their lives.

These parents are so out of touch that they aren't even aware their teens are from another world ("Roswell") or risking their lives against evil incarnate ("Buffy the Vampire Slayer"). The teens on many of these shows are so Angst-ridden they have their shrinks on speed dial. They also have cell phones, beepers, expensive cars, computers, CD players and cash to spare. What most lack, however, is parental guidance.

Experts — psychologists who concentrate on the media and teens, professors, high school teachers, parents, and teens themselves — note that TV has never been a beacon of reality. And baby boomers remember that life in the '50s and '60s was not all Donna Reed pearls and pies.

"When I was a little kid, I watched "Leave It to Beaver" and "Ozzie and Harriet," and everything was so polished," says Robert Butterworth, a Los Angeles child psychologist. Now, he says, the pendulum has swung from perfection to dysfunction. "My 14-year-old was watching these kids with all these problems (on current TV shows), and he looked at me and said, 'My life's not so bad after all.' "

A show such as The WB Network's "Dawson's Creek" appeals to kids as a fantasy of the perfect teen-age existence, Butterworth notes. When these gorgeous youngsters have to study for a big exam, they have a coed sleepover, relax with a glass of fine wine in the hot tub and jump in the pool for a bracer before the test. And best of all, there are no pesky parents around to spoil their fun and snoop around in their lives. Nice work if you can get it, but most real-world teens can't, Butterworth says. "My 14-year-old wishes I didn't look under his bed and check his e-mail."

Ana Gasteyer of "SNL" was a Groundling

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

I love Ana Gasteyer, one of the actresses on NBC's "Saturday Night Live," but I couldn't find out much about her. Where could I write to her? -Sarah Scanlon, Owensboro, Ky.

A graduate of Northwestern University in Evanston, Ill., where she briefly was a voice major in classical music, Gasteyer later moved to California and joined the Groundlings comedy troupe along with "SNL" castmates Will Ferrell, Chris Kattan and Cheri Oteri.

Since 1996, when she joined "SNL," Gasteyer has created such lively characters as National Public Radio host Margaret Jo; singer and music teacher Bobbi Moughan-Culp; and Kincaid, a goof on MTV's Kennedy.

She divides her time between New York and Los Angeles, where she lives with her husband, graphic artist Charlie McKittrick, and their two dogs and a cat.

Write to Gasteyer c/o "Saturday Night Live," NBC, 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10112.

~~I could swear that I recognized~~ Joseph Mascolo ("Days of Our Lives") in "Jaws." Also, my mother tells me that James Mitchell ("All My Children") danced in Laurey's dream sequence in the movie "Oklahoma!" Are we correct? -Curious as Usual in Warroad, Minn.

Mascolo had a featured role in "Jaws 2," not "Jaws," but that was indeed Mitchell dancing the role of Laurey's "Dream Curly" in "Oklahoma!"

What claimed the life of Shirley Hemphill ("What's Happening!")? Wasn't she quite young? -Shannon Ward, Vale, Ore.

Hemphill died of kidney failure on Dec. 10, 1999. She was only 52.

Why did Mother Love leave "Forgive or Forget"? We don't care for the replacement. -Ross and Barb Ziegler via e-mail.

Neither do most other fans of the show, if my mail is any indication. "Forgive or Forget" pulled very disappointing ratings in its maiden season, and Twentieth Television executives decided to try a younger, more glamorous hostess before they pulled the plug altogether.

Their choice, Robin Givens ("Boomerang"), seems to be leaving most viewers cold. The show has a long shot at best for renewal.

How old is the little boy who plays Timmy on the soap opera "Passions"? -A. Sapp, Columbus, Ohio.

That "little boy" turned 18 on Jan. 10. Actor Josh Ryan Evans, who stands 3 feet 1 inch tall, made guest appearances as child lawyer Oren Koolie on "Ally McBeal" and co-stars with Jim Carrey in the upcoming big-screen "How the Grinch Stole Christmas." He is also working on a series of children's books. Evans has a brother who is 6 feet 4.

SUNDAY'S BEST BETS

College Basketball

11 A.M. ON CBS

St. John's and Miami ready for the Big East tournament as they close the regular season in Florida. Although distracted by possible impending sanctions from the NCAA, the Red Storm have put together a strong season, even without guard Erick Barkley. He missed two games recently due to a suspension, but is back to face a tough Miami defense. The Hurricanes routinely hold opponents to under 70 points, and are undefeated through eight games when their foe manages less than 60. On offense, the team's most consistent scorer has been Johnny Hemsley. The senior guard is third in the conference in scoring.

NBA Basketball

11:30 A.M. ON NBC

The Utah Jazz make their first visit to Madison Square Garden in two seasons when they battle the New York Knicks. And it may be the last time the New York fans get to see Utah's big three — Karl Malone, John Stockton and Jeff Hornacek. While Hornacek has already said this is his last season, no one knows what the future holds for the pick-and-role tandem of Malone and Stockton. The Knicks entered the stretch run on a high, beating Milwaukee recently after being down by as many as 19 points. Balanced scoring keyed the comeback. For the first time in eight years, four Knicks scored at least 20 points in the same game.

Sela Ward

CATCH A FALLING STAR

Movie: Life Size

6 P.M. ON ABC

A heartbroken girl dabbles in witchcraft in an attempt to bring her mother back from the dead. Instead, she brings her doll, Eve, to life. As Eve adjusts to life in the human world, she helps her new friend adjust to life without Mom. Lindsay Lohan ("The Parent Trap") and Jere Burns ("Something So Right") star in this new family drama, with model Tyra Banks as Eve.

Movie: The Golden Spiders: A Nero Wolfe Mystery

7 P.M. ON A&E

Maury Chaykin ("Mystery, Alaska," "Joan of Arc") plays the food- and orchid-loving detective in this adaptation of Rex Stout's 1953 novel. His mission: Solve a confusing series of murders that may be linked to a mysterious woman with earrings shaped like spiders. He's faced with a tangled web of evidence and a long list of suspects, but as always, Nero is up to the challenge ... particularly with his loyal assistant, Archie Goodwin, handling the legwork.

Movie: Catch a Falling Star

8 P.M. ON CBS

During a New England location shoot, a movie star (Sela Ward, "Once and Again") catches her fiance — also a movie star — with another woman and flees to the woods. After getting lost, she finds her way to a little steel-mill town where she gets an irresistible taste of life as an ordinary person.

Famed movie composer Duning dies at age 92

SAN DIEGO (AP) — George Duning, whose musical scores for movies such as "Picnic" and "From Here to Eternity" earned him Academy Award nominations, died Tuesday of heart disease. He was 92.

Duning was hired in the 1930s as musical director of the NBC radio show "Kay Kyser's Kollege of Musical Knowledge."

When he returned from the Navy after World War II, he joined Columbia Pictures, where he scored the movies "Let No Man Write My Epitaph," "My Sister Eileen," "Houseboat," "That Touch of Mink" and "Bell, Book and Candle."

Disaster strikes "Sally"

By Lorri Antosz Benson
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Talk the Talk

February is normally a stressful time for talk show executives because of the ratings war, but this year the staff of "The Sally Jessy Raphael Show" had to deal with the added pressure of an office under water.

Computers, office equipment and furniture were submerged one day last month due to a water-line break. All the necessary tools to perform normal job functions were damaged by the flood.

The lost computers made life especially tedious, but according to show spokesperson Lee Fryd, "Everyone pitched in and helped, doubling up on computers, etc."

Raphael rewarded the staff's extraordinary efforts after the first week of bailing water.

"Sally decided to cheer us up," Fryd says. "She took us all to a very upscale Brazilian all-you-can-eat restaurant. The whole group received personalized baseball caps, which read, 'Sally Flood 2000,' as well as copies of "The Poseidon Adventure.""

Other appropriate gag gifts were distributed, including flippers for one producer, a boogie board for another and red swim goggles for Raphael.

"A good time was had by all," Fryd says, adding that the strain didn't compromise the show. "We had some of our best (ratings) numbers in a long time."

"Sally's on Your Side," the show's new closing segment, may be responsible for the increase.

As Raphael ends the show, she invites her audience to call, write, fax or e-mail their personal questions and dilemmas.

Raphael says, "We'll take on everything from problem pets to dating quandaries, to people who need some serious help before they fall through the cracks."

There were 50 responses to the story concerning the terminally ill man seeking a home for his soon-to-be orphaned teen-age son. The letters were sent unopened to the dying father in the hope that one may be the answer to his prayers.

The "Jenny Jones Show" is also looking to make some dreams come true.

On a show last month, Jones featured teens harassed at school. One girl is put down by her peers because she constantly sings under her breath.

Despite the girl's lack of confidence in her voice, Jones asked her to perform.

To her surprise, an audience member stood up and said she wanted the girl to sing the song at her wedding!

WEDNESDAY'S BEST BETS

Two Guys and a Girl

7 P.M. ON ABC

As the big day approaches, Sharon (Traylor Howard) is getting a jump start on her role as loving wife by pressuring Johnny (Nathan Fillion) into penning his own wedding vows. Berg (Ryan Reynolds) is feeling the pressure that comes with freedom as he's finally allowed to work alone with his patients, which, depending on how he performs, could make or break his medical career. Richard Ruccolo and Suzanne Cryer also star in "Once Again From the Beginning."

Biography

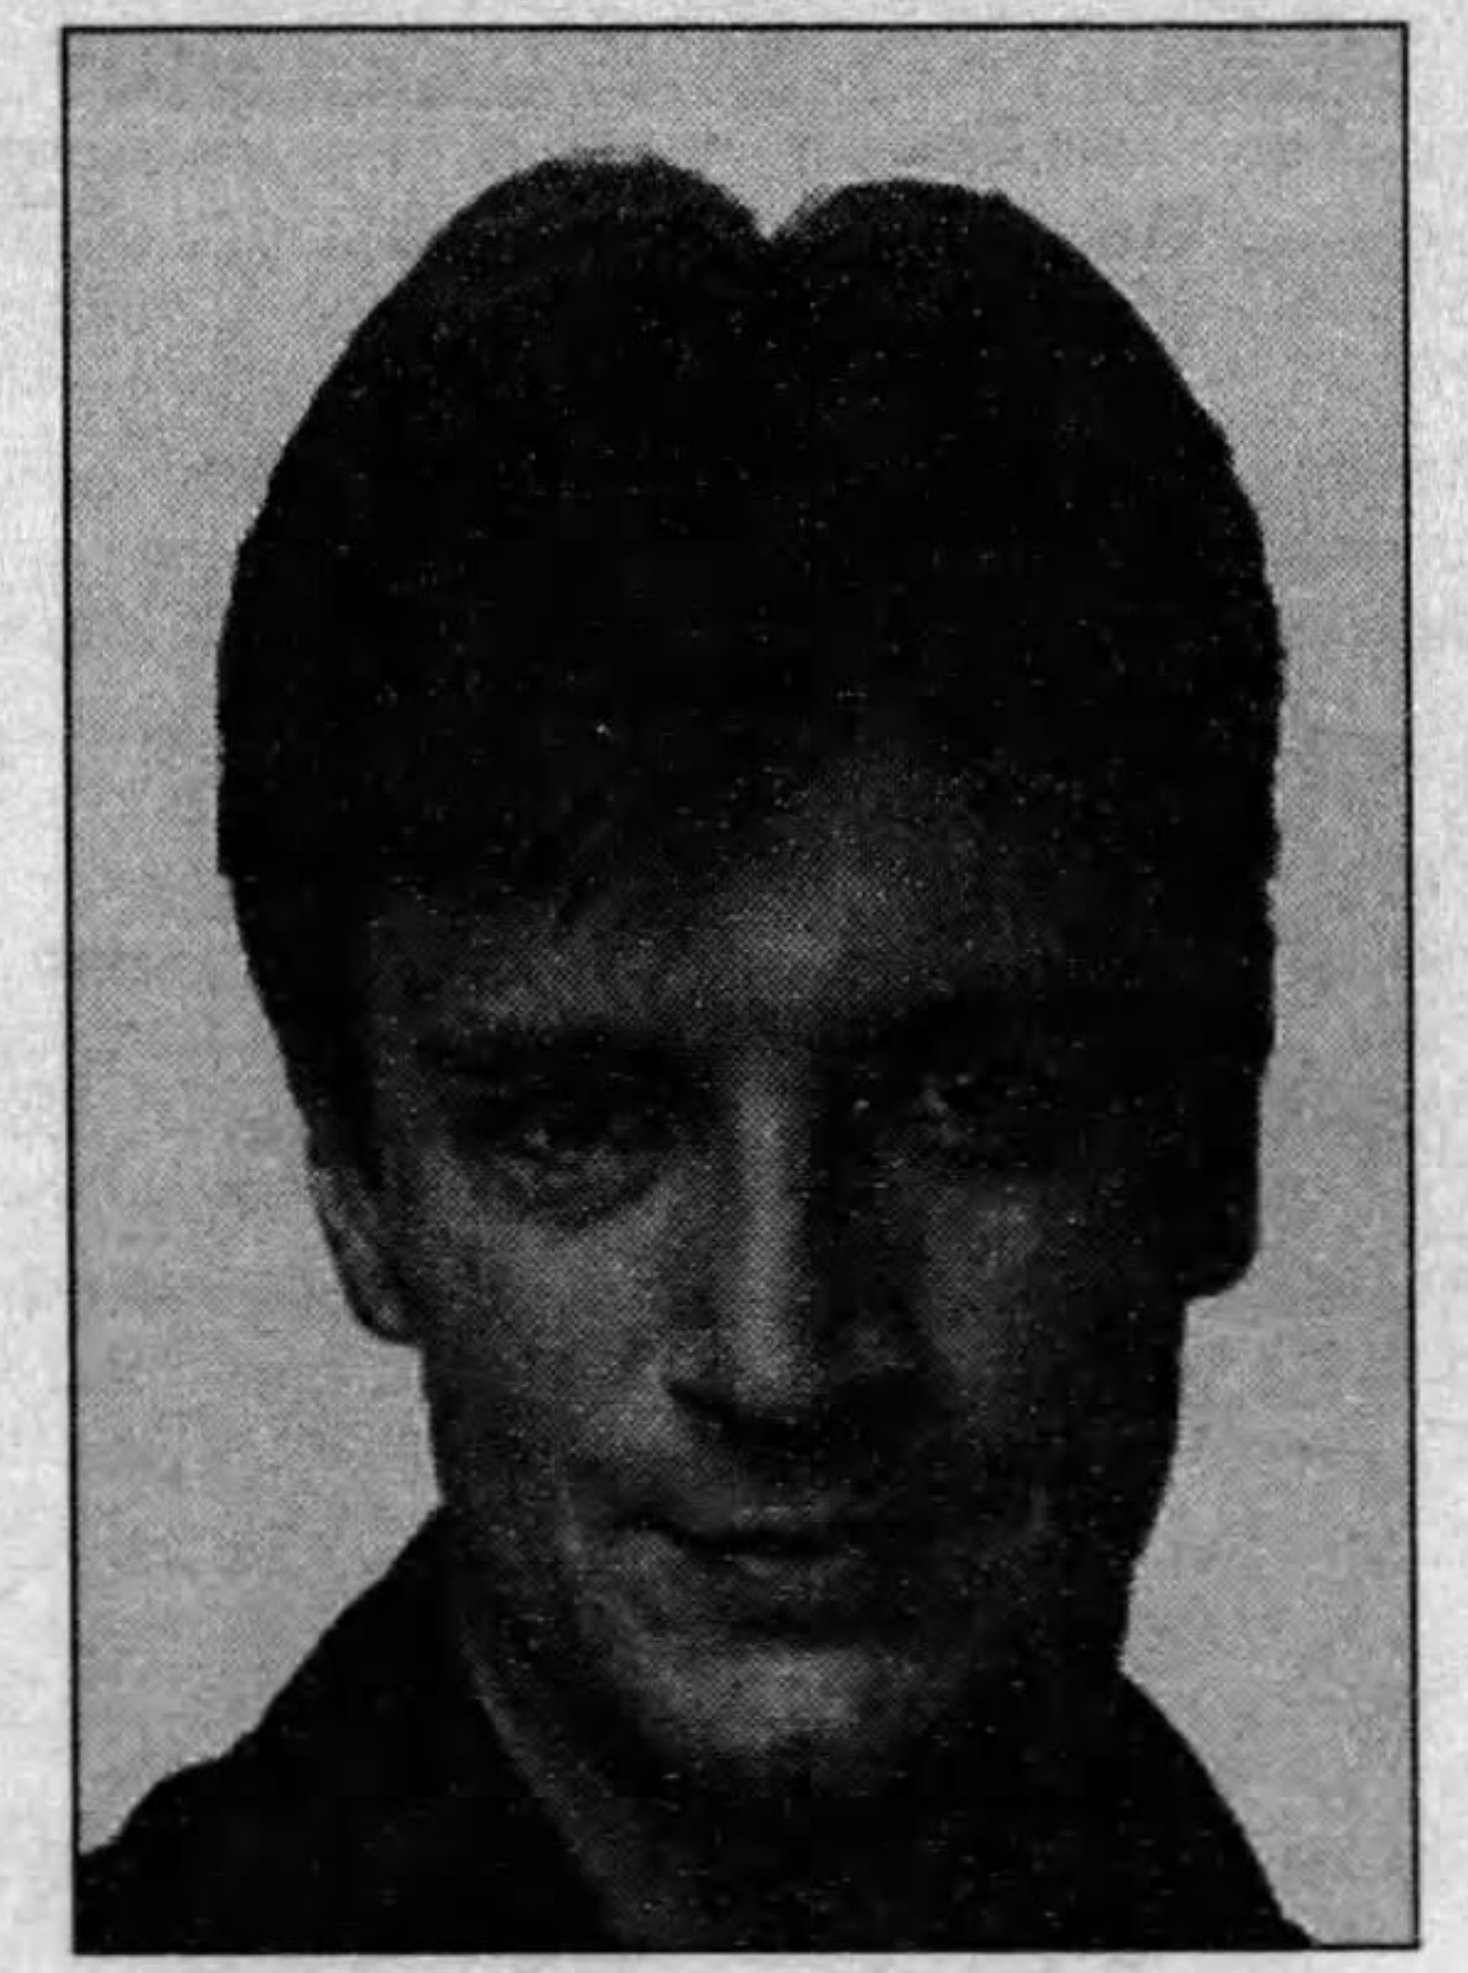
7 P.M. ON A&E

"Maureen O'Hara: Wild Irish Rose" profiles the actress whose on-screen persona perpetuated the positive stereotype of Irish women as feisty but feminine characters able to hold their own against male bluster. In recent years, she's found a new career playing classy elderly women in such TV tear-jerkers as "The Christmas Box" and "Cab to Canada." Her career and less-than-perfect personal life are recalled in interviews with costars Roddy McDowall and Anna Lee ("How Green Was My Valley"), among others.

Movie: The First Wives Club

8 P.M. ON CBS

This first-rate comedy boasts a trio of award-winning actresses playing middle-aged women dumped by their husbands for newer models. Goldie Hawn, Diane Keaton and Bette Midler star as the women out to even the score, who prove no one knows how to get revenge quite like a first wife. Sarah Jessica Parker also stars.



Nathan Fillion

TWO GUYS AND A GIRL

The West Wing

8 P.M. ON NBC

It's a census year, and counting folks is at the top of the agenda in the encore of "Mr. Willis of Ohio." Al Fann guest stars as Willis, a skittish widower who's taken over his late wife's congressional seat, and whom Toby and Mandy (Richard Schiff, Moira Kelly) are trying to talk into approving a bill with a key provision affecting the census. It's an issue that has C.J. (Allison Janney) a bit confused, especially where the president's stance on random counting is concerned, so she reluctantly seeks an interpretation from Sam. John Spencer also stars.

Roswell

8 P.M. ON WB

In an encore of "285 South," Michael finds a captive audience in Maria after he steals her car to find the mysterious building he sees in a recurring dream. What he doesn't see is the cavalry coming up behind them as Liz, Max, Isabel and Kyle hit the road in hot pursuit of him.

Rock and Roll Hall of Fame: Class of 2000

8 P.M. ON VH1

Bluesy rockers Eric Clapton and Bonnie Raitt; James "Mr. Mellow" Taylor; doo-woppers the Moonglows; the Lovin' Spoonful; and Earth, Wind & Fire join the pantheon of musical immortals in this year's induction ceremony.

THURSDAY'S BEST BETS

Movie: Cool Runnings

7 P.M. ON FOX

Jon Turteltaub ("While You Were Sleeping") directed this fact-based and surprisingly charming 1993 comedy about four athletes from Jamaica determined to form a bobsled team. Malik Yoba, Doug E. Doug, Leon and Rawle D. Lewis star, with John Candy as the team's reluctant coach.

Biography

7 P.M. ON A&E

His movie career spanned five decades, and his name became a synonym for American machismo. The two-hour encore profile "John Wayne: American Legend" revisits the on- and off-screen lives of the actor who became an icon with his portrayals of cowboys, soldiers and other manly men. Interviewees include Wayne's co-stars Patricia Neal ("In Harm's Way," "Operation Pacific") and Charlton Heston ("The Greatest Story Ever Told").

Movie: What Ever Happened to Baby Jane?

7 P.M. ON AMC

Aging screen queens Bette Davis and Joan Crawford reinvented themselves as scream queens in this campy 1962 horror tale. Davis earned an Oscar nomination for her performance as a demented former child star who finds a new career path late in life: tormenting her disabled sister (Crawford). Victor Buono (special guest villain King Tut from the "Batman" TV series) also stars.

COOL RUNNINGS

Movie: M*A*S*H

7 P.M. ON TNT

Do the names Hawkeye and Trapper John conjure up images of Donald Sutherland and Elliott Gould or Alan Alda and Wayne Rogers? The runaway success of the TV spinoff almost obliterated memories of this 1970 comedy about doctors using humor to defuse the tension of patching up Korean War victims.

God, the Devil and Bob

7:30 P.M. ON NBC

The man upstairs and the demon down below make a bet: Is humanity worth saving? Their test case is a 32-year-old working Joe — make that working Bob — from Detroit. Can this flawed human steer clear of the devil's devious temptations and prove himself and all mankind worthy? That's the premise of this new animated sitcom, whose stellar voice cast includes James Garner as God, French Stewart as Bob and Tony winner Alan Cumming ("Cabaret") as the prince of darkness.

Diagnosis Murder

8 P.M. ON CBS

Mark (Dick Van Dyke) is caught between the proverbial rock and hard place. An old girlfriend (guest star Michelle Phillips) wants him to help clear her hot-tempered husband (Ray Wise) of a murder rap. But Mark's own son, Steve the cop (Barry Van Dyke), says all the evidence indicates the guy's guilty. Joanna Cassidy also guest stars in the encore of "The Flame."

Next, Shawn (Rider Strong) makes a discovery about his family and is offered a new one in the encore of "Family Trees."

Movie: Showdown in Magic Town

7 P.M. ON UPN

But his time is up; at the turn of the millennium, a new magician must assume the mantle of Grand Magus. Simon's choice is Michael (Charlie O'Connell, "Sliders"), a carefree street performer who wants no part of the job until evil incarnate kidnaps his beloved sister. Gabrielle Fitzpatrick also stars in this new supernatural thriller.

Movie: Top Gun

7 P.M. ON TNT

This 1986 drama may be the perfect date movie, with heart-stopping special effects for the male half of the audience and a heart-fluttering leading man for the women. Tom Cruise stars as the fighter pilot who learns all the right moves at the Navy's elite Top Gun school. Kelly McGillis plays his love interest, with Val Kilmer as his steely-eyed nemesis, the aptly nicknamed Iceman. The film's love theme, "Take My Breath Away," won the Oscar and Golden Globe for best song.

SATURDAY'S BEST BETS

2 Hour Tour
6:30 P.M. ON DISN

This new music series gives aspiring stars an audition, advice and a shot at entering the big time from an individual or group who's already arrived. In the premiere, "Christina Aguilera," the singing superstar listens to three bands from Miami, offers some suggestions and chooses one of them to open for her at a future concert.

Movie: Sleepers
7 P.M. ON ABC

Brad Pitt and Jason Patric star as an assistant district attorney and a newspaper reporter who fashion a scheme to save two childhood friends accused of murdering an abusive reformatory guard (Kevin Bacon). Based on Lorenzo Carcaterra's best-selling book, the 1996 drama also stars Dustin Hoffman and Minnie Driver.

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E

The encore of "Gene Hackman: Portrait of the Artist" profiles the former Marine who started his acting career relatively late but wasted no time in rising to the top. A versatile performer who's at ease in both good- and bad-guy roles, he's earned five Oscar nominations and taken home two statuettes.

Movie: Message in a Bottle
7 P.M. ON HBO

A newspaperwoman finds a love letter floating in the ocean and tracks down the handsome shipwright who wrote it. Romantic sparks are soon flying, but a different kind of fire erupts when the man discovers his secrets have gotten into print. Kevin Costner and Robin Wright Penn are the stars of this 1999 romance, but Paul Newman, as the father of Costner's character, nearly steals the show.

Brad Pitt and Jason Patric
SLEEPERS

Movie: Coneheads
8 P.M. ON SCIFI

Dan Aykroyd and Jane Curtin reprise their alien roles from the popular "Saturday Night Live" sketch in this 1993 comedy. Sharp-eyed viewers will see lots of "SNL" alumni in the cast, including Jon Lovitz, David Spade, Chris Farley and Laraine Newman, who played daughter Connie in the TV version. Bonnie and Terry Turner, who resurrected the funny-aliens-on-Earth concept with "3rd Rock From the Sun," share the writing credits with Aykroyd and Tom Davis.

Mad TV
10 P.M. ON FOX

The hot pop group 98 Degrees makes a pit stop on the sketch comedy series in this encore episode. The boy band wants to set the record straight about a questionable music video collaboration with another group — the Three Tenors: Luciano Pavarotti, Jose Carreras and Placido Domingo (Will Sasso, Alex Borstein, Michael McDonald). Nicole Sullivan, Phil LaMarr and Mo Collins also star.

Billy Campbell ("Once & Again") dated Jennifer Connelly for five years after co-starring with her in the 1991 film "The Rocketeer.

Charisma Carpenter ("Angel") hated her name so much as a child that she went by "Chrissy." Her mother named her after a perfume.

Glenn Quinn (formerly of "Angel") is a native of Ireland. His stint on "Angel" was the first time he didn't have to hide his brogue for a role.

Megan Follows ("Anne of Green Gables: The Continuing Story") comes from a family of actors, writers and producers.

Jaime Pressly ("Jack & Jill") hates doing on-screen love scenes and says that even a staged kiss is too intimate for her liking.

TV comics mining laughter from 2000 presidential race

By John Crook
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Cover story

Selecting the next leader of the free world may be a serious business, but that hasn't stopped TV comics from mining a mother lode of laughs in the ongoing race for president of the United States.

Out in front of the media laughpack, not surprisingly, is Comedy Central with "The Daily Show" team of host Jon Stewart and "Indecision 2000" correspondents including Steve Carell, Stephen Colbert, Vance DeGeneres, Beth Littleford and Mo Rocca.

For this year's election coverage — the cable channel's first was during the 1992 race — Comedy Central scored a major coup by signing Bob Dole as a guest political commentator.

During one program a few weeks ago, with support for Republican contender Sen. John McCain at a fever pitch, Dole cracked that so many people were trying to emulate McCain that first lady Hillary Rodham Clinton, a candidate for a U.S. Senate seat, "now is saying that she was a prisoner of war in Arkansas for several years."

But the regular team — augmented by occasional appearances by special contributor Ben Stein — are the main strength of the Comedy Central coverage, whether they are confronting candidates about their stance on candlepin bowling or fishing for compliments on their cool new official Indecision 2000 jackets.

Much of the material almost writes itself, Stein says, in both the presidential race and the closely watched New York Senate contest between Hillary Rodham Clinton and Rudolph Giuliani, the Republican mayor of New York.

"The idea of Hillary on one side, and Giuliani running as a Republican when he endorsed the Democrat in the last election for governor — that election is just unbelievable," he says drily.

"(It's) as strange as the idea of (Al) Gore — an actually psychopathically delusional person — running against George W. Bush, a person with no experience whatsoever to speak of that qualifies him (for the office)."

"Actually, he was social chairman at his frat," Stewart quickly interjects, in a mock-clarification.

While the real-life politicians are duking it out, the performers on NBC's venerable if uneven "Saturday Night Live" are trying to get a handle on the emerging political figures that will figure in some of the show's satirical sketches.

Lucci's daughter Liza plays 'Passion'-ate role

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

I am a big fan of "Passions." Does Susan Lucci's daughter play one of the characters on the show? -Cathi Sinkel, Marietta, Ga.

The daughter of Susan Lucci and Helmut Huber, Liza Huber, 25, plays Gwen Hotchkiss on the NBC soap.

I say Donna Douglas, who played Elly May Clampett on "The Beverly Hillbillies," is alive and well. My husband insists she passed away. Who is right? -Beth T., Lynchburg, Va.

You are. Douglas, now 66, is still alive, although I have no information about her current whereabouts.

I suddenly recalled seeing Jack Klugman on an episode of "Naked City." Did my brain ring a bell, or do I have bats in my belfry? -Herb Schalk, Washington, N.J.

Yes, the Emmy-winning actor appeared in a half-dozen episodes of "Naked City."

Why did CBS cancel "Early Edition"? -Betty Barnett, Charlotte, N.C.

Pipeline

~~"Edition" retur~~ned~~ to the Saturday~~ night lineup in mid-February, but suffered a serious slump in the ratings this year. CBS won't make a final decision until May, but chances for another season look dim.

Where can I find Stephen King's novel "The Shawshank Redemption"? -Shirley N., Jasper, Ind.

Frank Darabont's 1994 prison drama is based on "Rita Hayworth and the Shawshank Redemption," a King novella published in the 1982 collection "Different Seasons," which is available in most bookstores.

Other novellas in the collection that also became movies are "Apt Pupil" and "The Body," which Rob Reiner turned into "Stand by Me."

I enjoy Jack Lemmon's performances, including the recent TV movie "Tuesdays With Morrie." Is he still married to Felicia Farr? -J. Miller, Suring, Wis.

Yes, the two have been married since 1962.

Did the actress who plays Stephanie Douglas Forrester on "The Bold and the Beautiful" have a role on "Dallas"? -D. in Wareham, Mass.

Yes. Susan Flannery played public relations agent Leslie Stewart.

Robert Blake starred in "Toma" and "Baretta." In one, he had a large bird; in the other, he was a priest. Which was which? -Jerry Sudduth, Reidsville, S.C.

Tony Musante played Det. David Toma in the 1973-74 ABC series "Toma." He left the show and ABC was going to keep the series but rename it "Toma Starring Robert Blake." That idea was scrapped and Blake played Det. Tony Baretta (who had a pet cockatoo named Fred) in a new series called "Baretta."

Blake also played Father Noah "Hardstep" Rivers in the 1985 series "Hell Town."

SUNDAY'S BEST BETS

Auto Racing
12 P.M. ON ABC

With a revamped team in place, Jeff Gordon returns to the Atlanta Motor Speedway to defend his Cracker Barrel Old Country Store 500 victory. Despite never leading in the first half of last year's race, Gordon overtook Bobby Labonte on lap 304 of 325, aided by the wisdom of crew chief Ray Evernham. But a shakeup forced Evernham out after last season, and now Gordon must prove he can win without the best crew in the business.

Movie: Model Behavior
6 P.M. ON ABC

Shy, geeky Alex yearns for a glamorous life. Teen model Janine wishes she had more freedom. When Alex helps her father cater a personal appearance by Janine, the two girls discover they share a remarkable resemblance and try switching roles for a while. Things get pretty confusing, especially where a hot male model is concerned (music group 'N Sync's Justin Timberlake), and both girls learn a good lesson about how the grass isn't necessarily greener across the fence. Maggie Lawson plays Alex and Janine, with Kathie Lee Gifford as Janine's controlling mom and Gifford's real-life son, Cody, as her kid brother.

NHL Hockey
7 P.M. ON ESPN

Eric Lindros and Peter Forsberg will forever be linked, thanks to the 1992 trade the Philadelphia Flyers made that sent Forsberg and others to the then-Quebec Nordiques for Lindros. The pressure to maximize his abundant talent and deliver a Cup to Philadelphia has been on Lindros ever since, and this year could be his last chance to attain the title of champion in a Flyers uniform. Forsberg, meanwhile, has become arguably the NHL's top all-around player, and he led the Colorado Avalanche to a Stanley Cup in 1996. The big centers face each other for the first time this season, as both were injured when the Flyers beat the Avs 5-4 in October.

AUTO RACING

Movie: The Inspectors 2: A Shred of Evidence
7 P.M. ON SHOW

U.S. Postal Inspectors Frank Hughes and Alex Urbina return in a new adventure based on real stories from the post office's crime files. In this one, the death of an identity thief puts Hughes and Urbina on the trail of the victim's partner, whose intentions are far deadlier.

The 6th Annual Screen Actors Guild Awards
7 P.M. ON TNT

The stars take a special pride in earning the Actor, the trophy given out at this awards gala, because it's voted on by their peers. In the movie category, best picture Oscar nominees "American Beauty," "The Green Mile" and "The Cider House Rules" are all up for the outstanding-cast honor, along with "Being John Malkovich" and "Magnolia." Sidney Poitier is slated to receive the guild's Life Achievement Award.

Unsigned musicians showcased on 'The Jenny Jones Show'

By Lorri Antosz Benson
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Up-and-coming musicians may want to contact Jenny Jones. The talk show host is searching for bands, singers and entertainers to showcase on "The Jenny Jones Show"."

Jones has formed a new partnership with Billboard Talent Net Inc., a professionally oriented Internet showcase for unsigned artists located at www.billboardtalentnet.com.

Jones' deal with Billboard offers hopefuls the chance for national television exposure, not only to her millions of viewers, but to record companies and talent executives.

Jones will feature acts on her show once a month from Radio BTN's Top 10 list. Video clips and information about the bands will be posted on Jones' Website, www.jennyjones.com.

This desire to help struggling musicians is nothing new for Jones.

A musician in her own right, she has always been committed to bringing musical veterans and the unknown stars of tomorrow to her show for performances.

Talk the Talk

One recent success story began with Jones asking former "Hollywood Access" host and "Entertainment Tonight" reporter Lisa Canning to be a judge for a regular talent segment.

Canning, now the host of a "Star Search"-type show called "Destination Stardom," brought one of the winners, a Chicago-based band called 3 B-low, to perform on Jones' show.

The band is now cutting an album for QVC's new label, Q Records, and its members are doing photo shoots with Elite models.

In other news, Carol Marin recently became the solo evening news anchor for CBS' Chicago affiliate and brought in immediate ratings results.

Marin made headlines in 1997 by quitting her anchorwoman position at the NBC affiliate WMAQ-TV when management hired controversial but popular talk show host Jerry Springer to spice up the evening news by giving daily commentary. He later left WMAQ, too.

Jenny Jones

So guess who just sent Marin a congratulatory bouquet? Mr. "No Hard Feelings" Springer.

Rosie O'Donnell also is making headlines.

After emceeing the Grammy Awards, O'Donnell signed on as host of the "54th Annual Tony Awards," airing June 4 on CBS.

O'Donnell hosted the awards show in 1997 and in 1998. According to "Entertainment Weekly," her appearances gave the special a ratings boost.

MONDAY'S BEST BETS

Movie: Satan's School for Girls

7 P.M. ON ABC

Shannen Doherty ("Charmed") stars in this remake of 1973's tale of satanism at an elite women's college. She almost literally goes through hell investigating the death — officially labeled a suicide — of her sister. Kate Jackson, who appeared in the 1973 version with fellow Charlie's Angel-to-be Cheryl Ladd, and Victoria Sanchez also star.

Biography

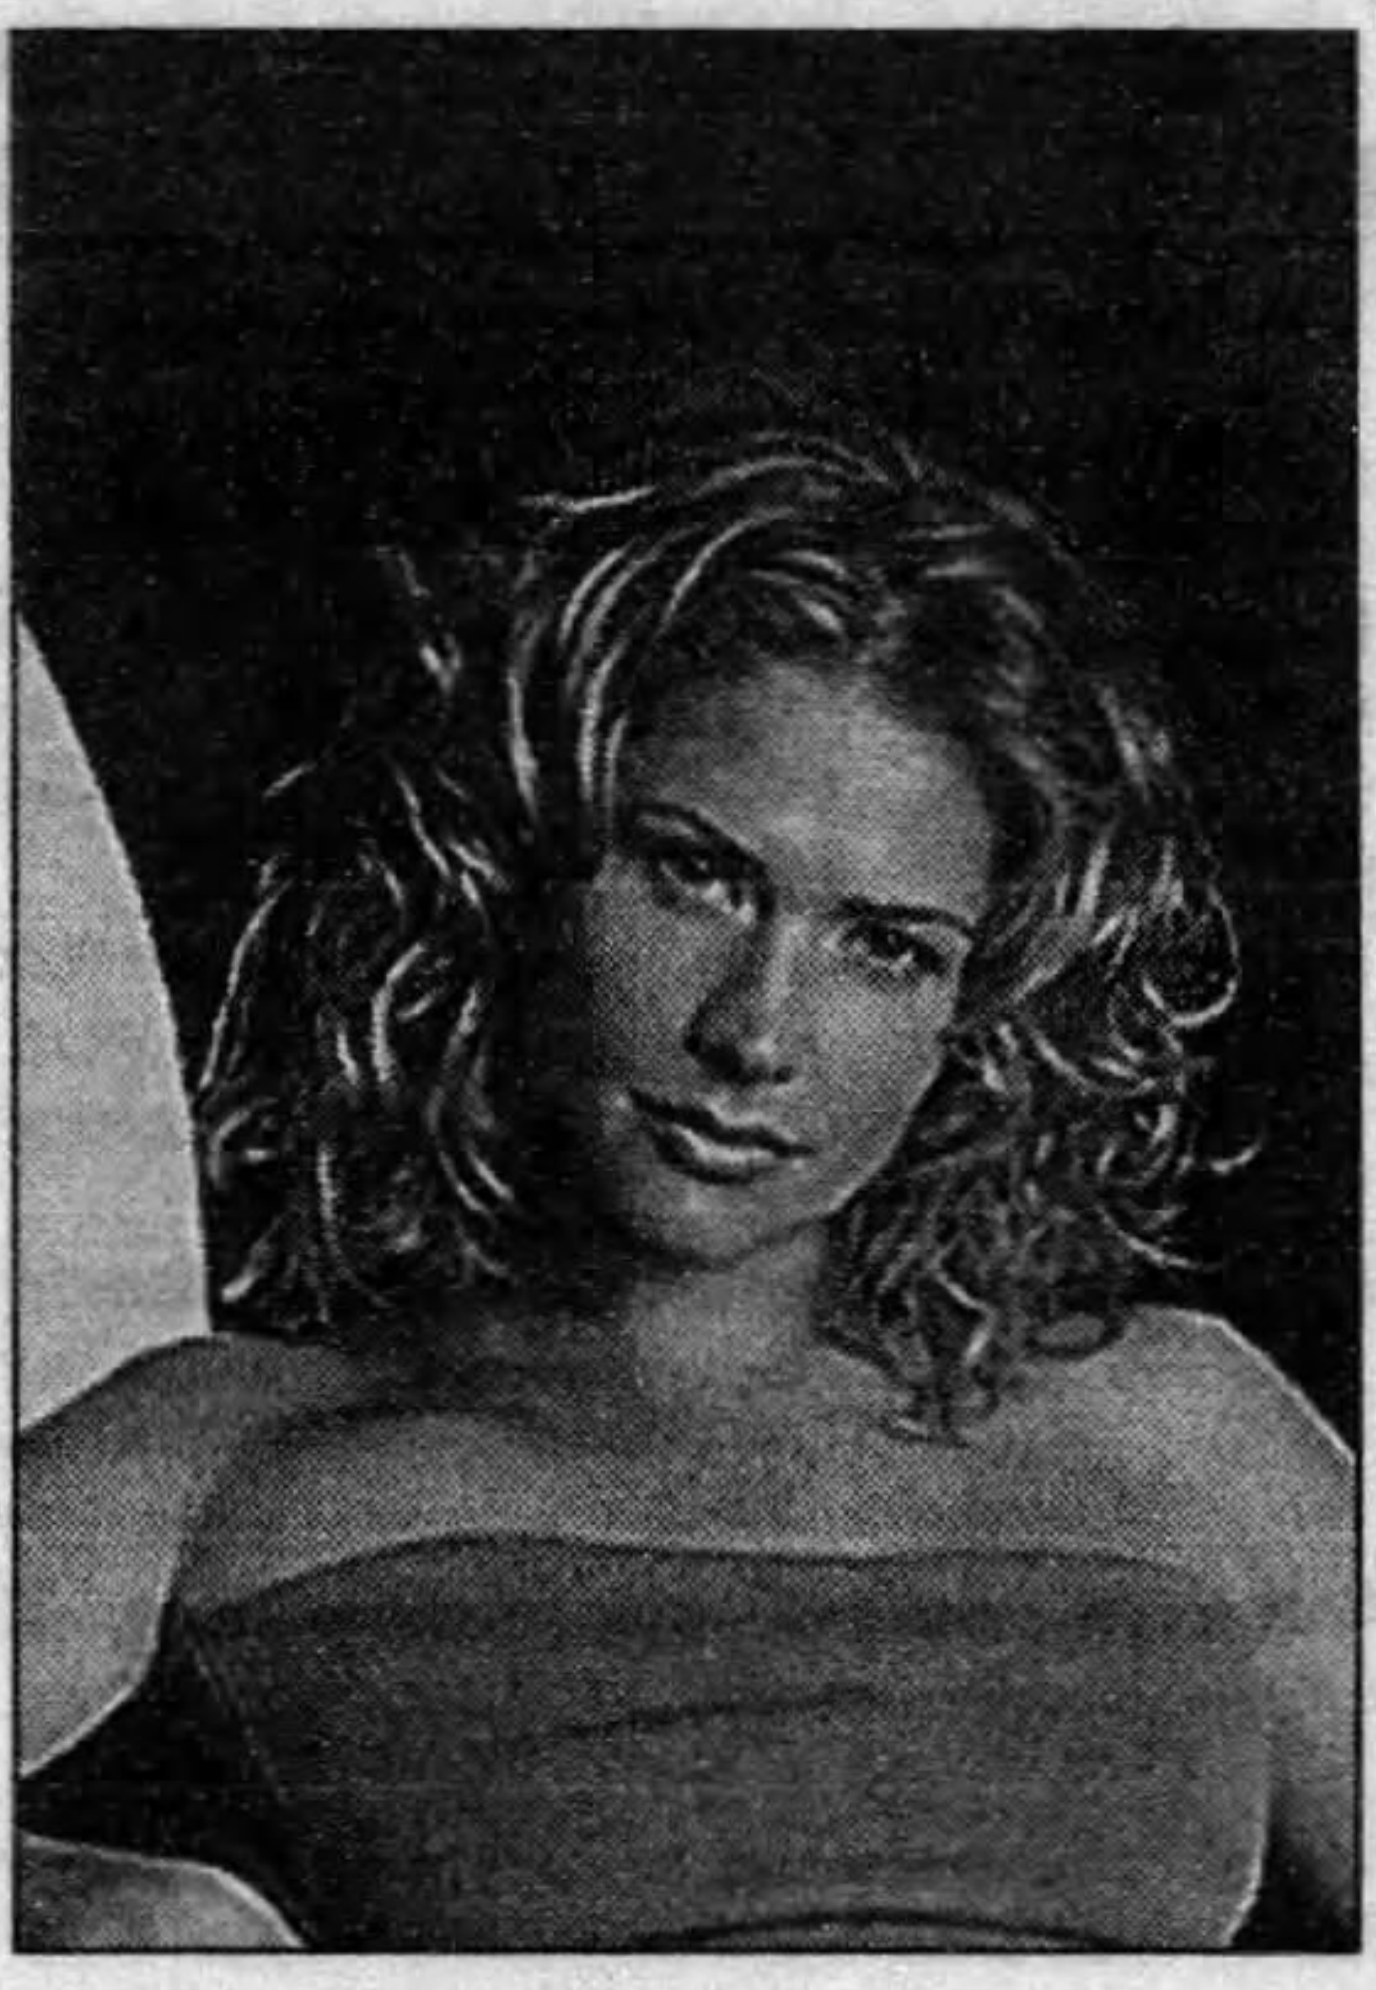
7 P.M. ON A&E

The encore of "Sarah Ferguson" shines the spotlight on the Duchess of York, who was the darling of royalty-watchers, a fresh country breeze in a stuffy palace, when she married Britain's Prince Andrew. But a series of missteps, including an extramarital romp that made the tabloids, ended the honeymoon within a few years. Since then, Andrew's ex has rebuilt her reputation, becoming known as a savvy businesswoman, dedicated humanitarian and devoted mom.

Grapevine

7:30 P.M. ON CBS

David (Steven Eckholdt) is halfway to proposing to Susan (Kristy Swanson). He has the ring, but lacks the courage to pop the question. Susan is the poster child for mixed emotions when she hears there's a ring with her name on it but doesn't know what's holding up the proposal. Then David receives a job offer across the country, so decision time is approaching fast. George Eads also stars in "David."



Kristy Swanson
GRAPEVINE

Everybody Loves Raymond

8 P.M. ON CBS

Ever been told you're just like So-and-So ... whom you can't stand? That's what happens to poor Ray (Ray Romano) when he gives his cousin Gerard (guest star Fred Stoller) a gig doing some work for him. Debra (Patricia Heaton) thinks the cousins are two peas in a pod — a sickening idea to Ray, who considers Gerard a whiny, complaining, dumb-question-asking pain in the butt.

Once and Again

9 P.M. ON ABC

Lily (Sela Ward) and her family are going through a rough patch despite the fact that the divorce proceedings are looking better for her side. But they get some emotional support during the difficult time from an unlikely source. Patrick Dempsey ("Scream 3") guest stars in "Strangers and Brothers." Billy Campbell also stars.

Paradise Lost 2: Revelations

9 P.M. ON HBO

In 1994, three teen-agers in West Memphis, Ark., were convicted in the brutal murder of three younger boys. Two got life sentences; a third went to death row and could be executed this year if his last appeal option is rejected. But serious questions remain in many people's minds about the boys' guilt. This follow-up special presents their side, which alleges, among other things, that bite marks on the bodies didn't match any of the defendants and that one of the youths may have been coerced into confessing.

TUESDAY'S BEST BETS

JAG

7 P.M. ON CBS

Mac (Catherine Bell) is a card-carrying skeptic with no use for all that paranormal nonsense. So she's the perfect choice to prosecute an admiral for the death of a subject in a psychic project. But her tune changes after the disappearance of her young friend Chloe (Mae Whitman) triggers an unexplainable vision. David James Elliott and John M. Jackson also star in the encore of "Psychic Warrior."

3rd Rock From the Sun

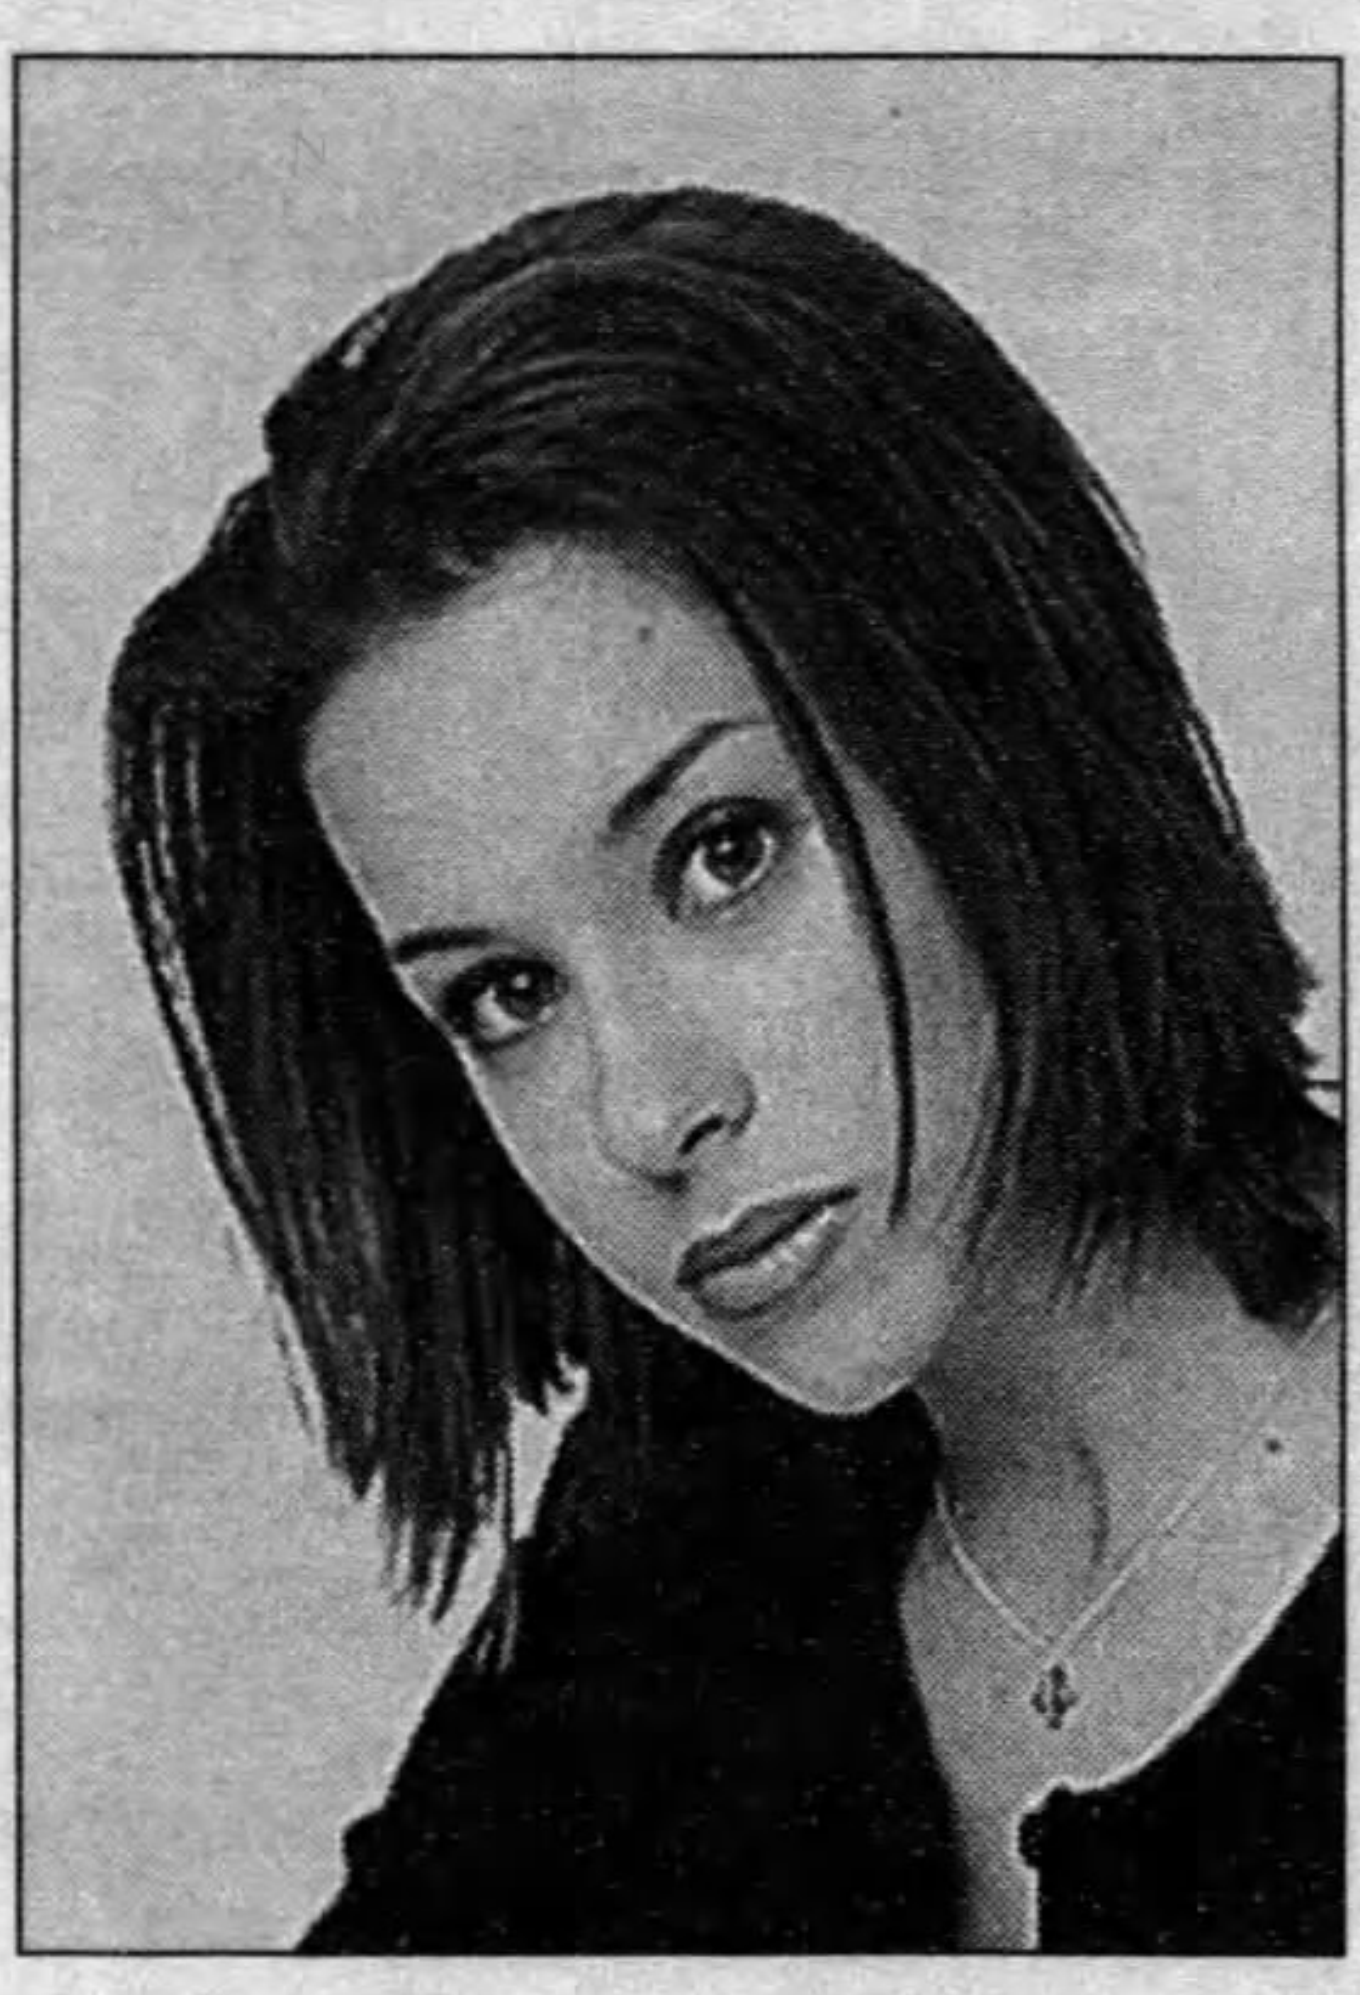
7 P.M. ON NBC

Pro wrestler Chyna guest stars in "This Little Dick Goes to Market" as Janice, the new cop on the block. While Harry (French Stewart) develops a case of the hots for the muscle-bound beauty, Sally (Kristen Johnston) feels threatened and challenges Janice for the unofficial title of strongest woman in Rutherford. John Lithgow also stars.

Buffy the Vampire Slayer

7 P.M. ON WB

In the encore of "Something Blue," the game plan is "Willow's will be done," but the results aren't quite what anyone expected. Despondent over Oz's (Seth Green) disappearing act, Willow (Alyson Hannigan) tries to give herself the power to get what she wants. But did she really want Giles (Anthony Stewart Head) to go blind and Buffy (Sarah Michelle Gellar) to start making wedding plans with Spike (James Marsters)? Nicholas Brendon also stars.



Lacey Chabert

PARTY OF FIVE

NHL Hockey

7 P.M. ON ESPN

As the season passes the three-quarter pole, the Mighty Ducks of Anaheim need a solid stretch run to solidify a playoff position in the Western Conference. For years, the Ducks have been viewed as a two-man team, and although those two — Paul Kariya and Teemu Selanne — are superstars, support players such as defenseman Oleg Tverdovsky need to make positive contributions. It's safe to say the Ducks' opponent in this game, the Colorado Avalanche, will make the playoffs. The only question is what position it ends up in. The fight for first place in the Northwest Division should go down to the final week, with the Avs and Edmonton Oilers as the primary combatants.

Party of Five

8 P.M. ON FOX

Kirsten has been acting rather moody lately, and Charlie fears it's a relapse of her depression. But the truth is something completely different, much to his surprise. Speaking of surprises, a stint in rehab gives Bailey a new insight into himself. Claudia (Lacey Chabert) encourages Julia to reveal her feelings.

Will & Grace

8 P.M. ON NBC

Chris Potter guest stars as Michael, Will's former boyfriend, who's back in New York sending out signals — at least Will thinks so — that he'd like them to get back together. An even more startling development is taking place at Grace's office, where Karen has actually volunteered for more work.

WEDNESDAY'S BEST BETS

Movie: Vegas Vacation
8 P.M. ON CBS

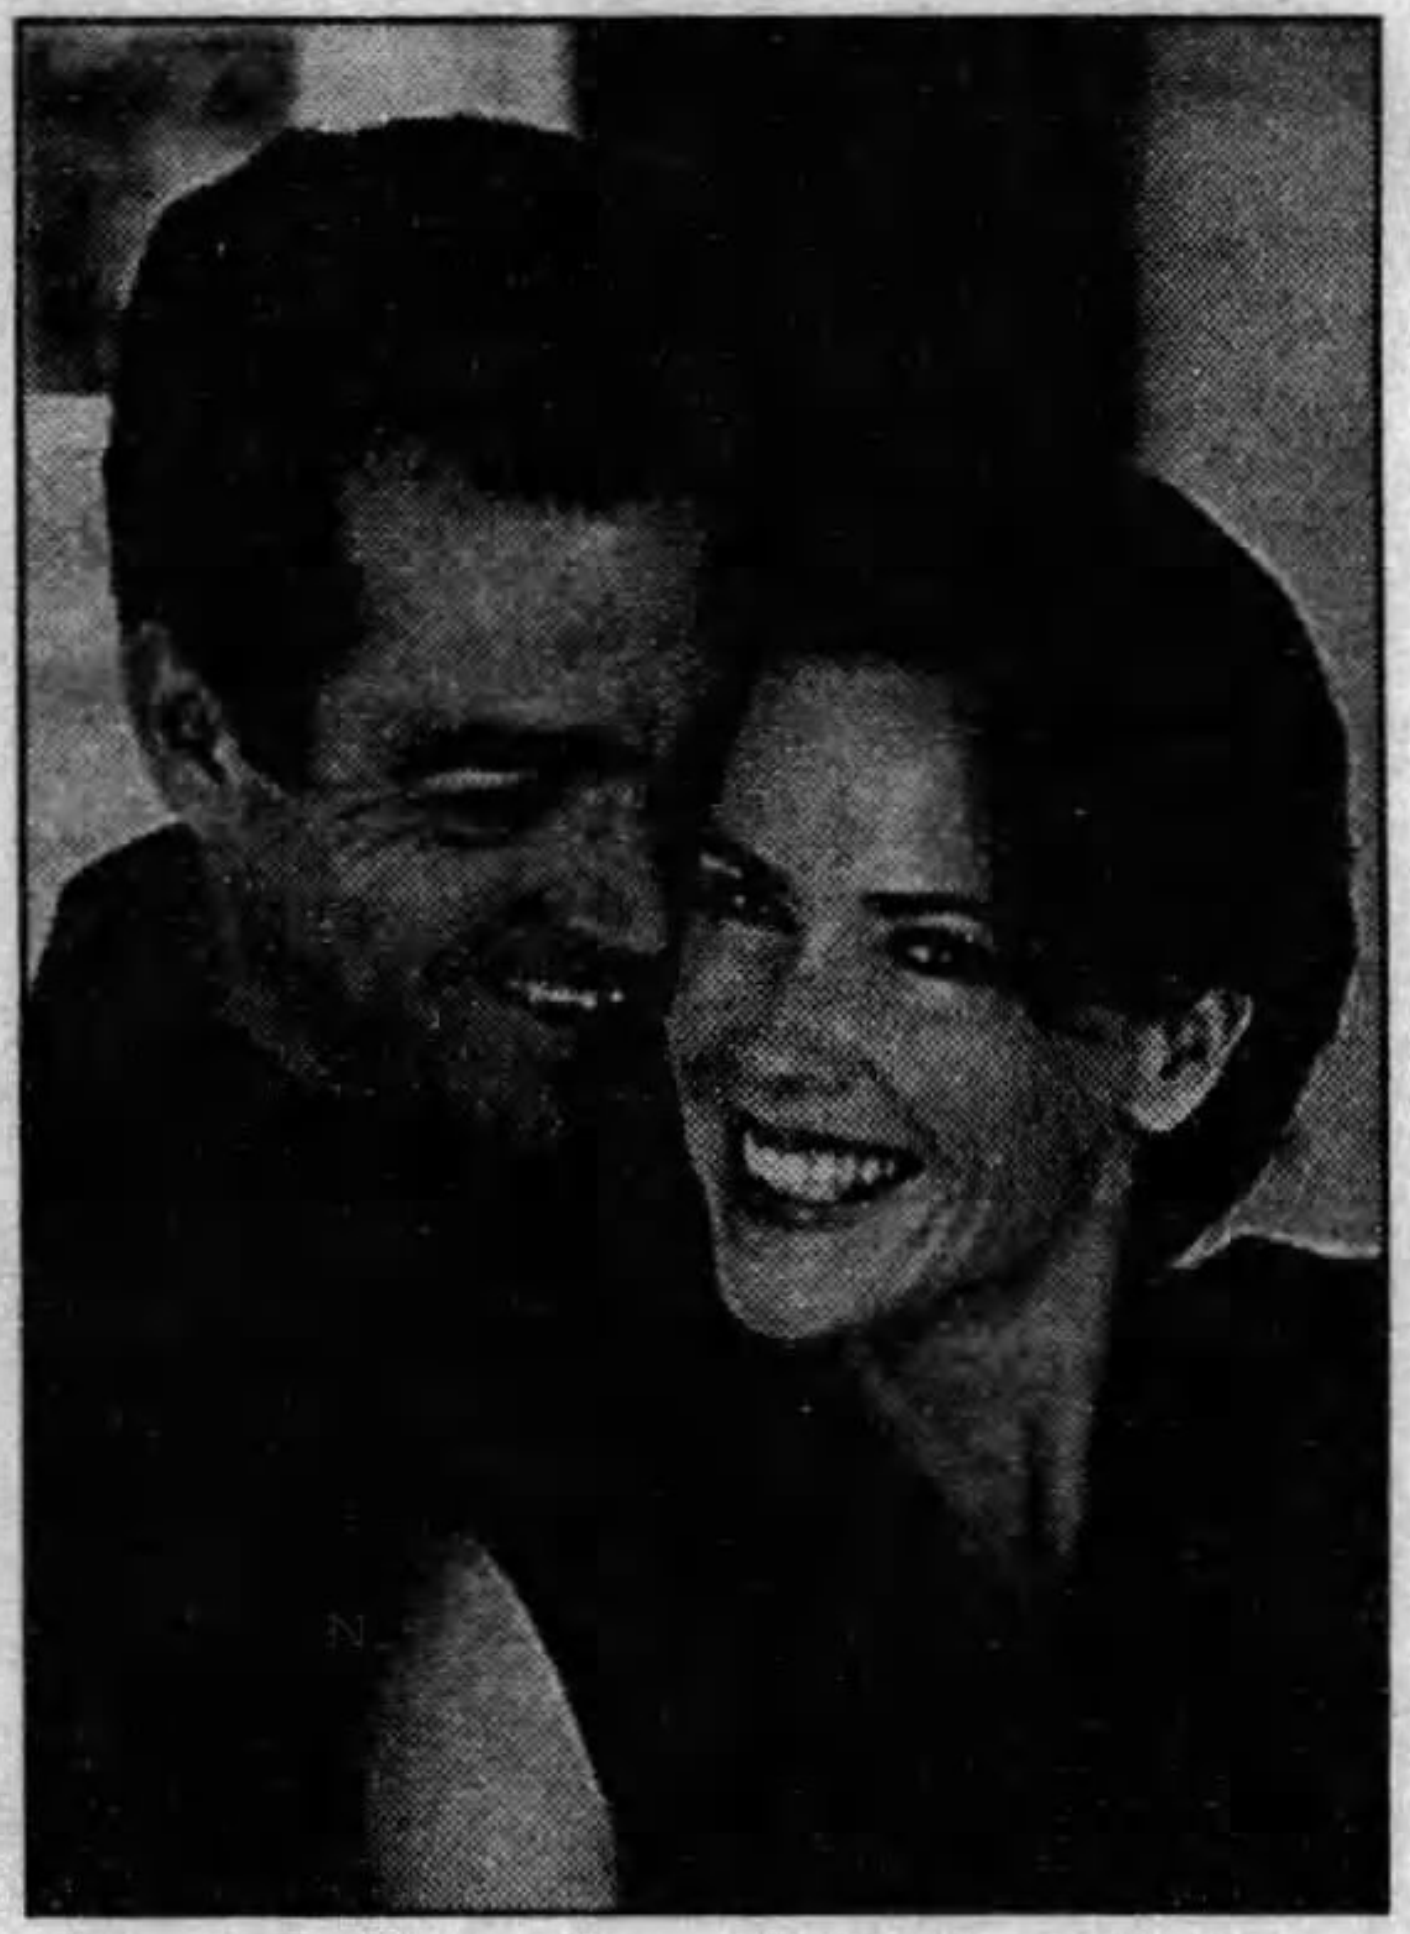
The grown-up side of Las Vegas sucks in the Griswold family in this 1997 comedy. Father Clark and son Rusty (Chevy Chase, Ethan Embry) get hooked on gambling, while mama Ellen (Beverly D'Angelo) falls hard for Wayne Newton, and an exotic dancer proves an unhealthy influence on daughter Audrey (Marisol Nichols). Christie Brinkley reprises her cameo role as the gorgeous mystery woman from the first "Vacation" movie. Randy Quaid also stars.

Get Real
8 P.M. ON FOX

Violent crime hits close to home for the Green family, forcing a variety of emotional crises, after Kate (guest star Debi Mazar), a friend of Mary's (Debrah Farentino), is victimized. Meghan and Clay (Anne Hathaway, Scott Vickaryous) reach a turning point in their relationship when Clay is offered a scholarship from a college miles away. Jon Tenney also stars in "Saved."

The West Wing
8 P.M. ON NBC

The president (Martin Sheen) and his staff have far more than place cards and protocol on their minds as they assemble for a state dinner honoring the Indonesian president. The FBI is in a standoff with survivalists, truckers across the country are threatening to strike, and a fleet of aircraft carriers is in the path of a hurricane. And guess who's coming to dinner! None other than Laurie (Lisa Edelstein), Sam's (Rob Lowe) call-girl pal.



Jon Tenney and Debrah Farentino
GET REAL

18 Wheels of Justice
8 P.M. ON NASH

Country singer Billy Ray Cyrus guest stars in "Games of Chance" as a Witness Protection Program participant who chucks his cover to go have some fun in Las Vegas. Cie (Lisa Thornhill), who happens to be an old flame of his, joins Chance (Lucky Vanous) in trying to get him back to safety before he ends up with achy, breaky bones ... or worse.

American Justice
9 P.M. ON A&E

"Getting Away With Murder" recounts the story of Melvin Ignatow, arrested for the murder of his fiancee, Brenda Schaefer, in 1988. An ex-girlfriend testified that Ignatow had had her take pictures of the killing. But the photos were never found, and without the hard evidence, Ignatow was acquitted. They were discovered almost a year later, but the double jeopardy rule prohibited another trial.

Homes of Our Heritage: Great American Women
9 P.M. ON HGTV

This third in a series of specials showcasing historical figures' homes celebrates Women's History Month with visits to the dwellings of seven memorable women. Among the more interesting are Eleanor Roosevelt's Val-Kill, a converted factory, and Red Cross founder Clara Barton's digs, a converted warehouse. You'll also see the homes of suffragist Susan B. Anthony; authors Harriet Beecher Stowe and Pearl Buck; author-activist Helen Keller; and Juliette Gordon Low, founder of Girl Scouts of the USA.

THURSDAY'S BEST BETS

College Basketball
11 A.M. ON CBS

Will the Connecticut Huskies repeat as champions? Can Bob Knight lead another Indiana team to the Final Four? What will the upsets be, and who will emerge as a Cinderella story? Beginning today for 64 teams, the story lines take shape in first-round coverage of the NCAA tournament. The second round is played on Saturday and Sunday, followed by regional action in the Sweet 16 from March 23-26. April 1 kicks off the Final Four, and the championship game is April 3 at the RCA Dome in Indianapolis.

Movie: Tombstone
7 P.M. ON FOX

Wyatt Earp (Kurt Russell) gets out of Dodge and attempts to settle down in Tombstone, Ariz., with his brothers (Sam Elliott, Bill Paxton) and buddy Doc Holliday (Val Kilmer). But just because it's called Tombstone doesn't mean it's dead. Wyatt can't hang up his six-shooters until he takes care of the outlaw gang that's stirring up trouble. Powers Boothe, Charlton Heston, Jason Priestley and Dana Delany also star in this 1993 adaptation of the O.K. Corral story.

Frasier
8 P.M. ON NBC

Frasier and Niles' (Kelsey Grammer, David Hyde Pierce) snobbishness gets a boost from an unlikely source: a cheesy clock of Martin's (John Mahoney) that turns out to be a valuable heirloom of the Russian royal family. That news, and the revelation that an ancestor came from Russia, has them scrambling for evidence that they have royal blood in their veins in the encore of "A Tsar Is Born."

Julianna Margulies
ER

Charmed
8 P.M. ON WB

A young man named Eric (guest star Greg Mehlman) finds the key to some secret-filled ancient tablets and becomes the target of warlocks who'll do anything to gain the tablets' power — including draining mortals' brains for knowledge. Prue and Piper (Shannen Doherty, Holly Marie Combs) suspect there are a couple of warlocks close to home and give themselves telepathic powers to check out their hunch in the encore of "They're Everywhere."

ER
9 P.M. ON NBC

Something explodes in a high-school science class, sending the students to the ER and triggering another explosion in a parent (Miguel Sandoval). Hathaway and Lucy (Julianna Margulies, Kellie Martin) try to coax their respective patients, a pregnant waitress and an artist (Martha Plimpton, Vincent Kartheiser), into drug rehab. A good deed brings bad news for an injured patient's brother (Scott Ferguson). Anthony Edwards and Noah Wyle also star in the encore of "Truth & Consequences."

FRIDAY'S BEST BETS

Providence

7 P.M. ON NBC

A storm pins Joanie (Paula Cale) under a tree out of reach of her little girl, while her sister (Melina Kanakaredes) struggles to save another baby — the unborn child of a Cambodian woman — as inspectors threaten to close the clinic because of its leaky roof. Jim (Mike Farrell) braves the elements to search for a missing patient: a blind basset hound. Only Robbie (Seth Peterson) seems oblivious to the weather; he's headed for Las Vegas with marriage on his mind in "The Storm."

Sabrina, the Teenage Witch

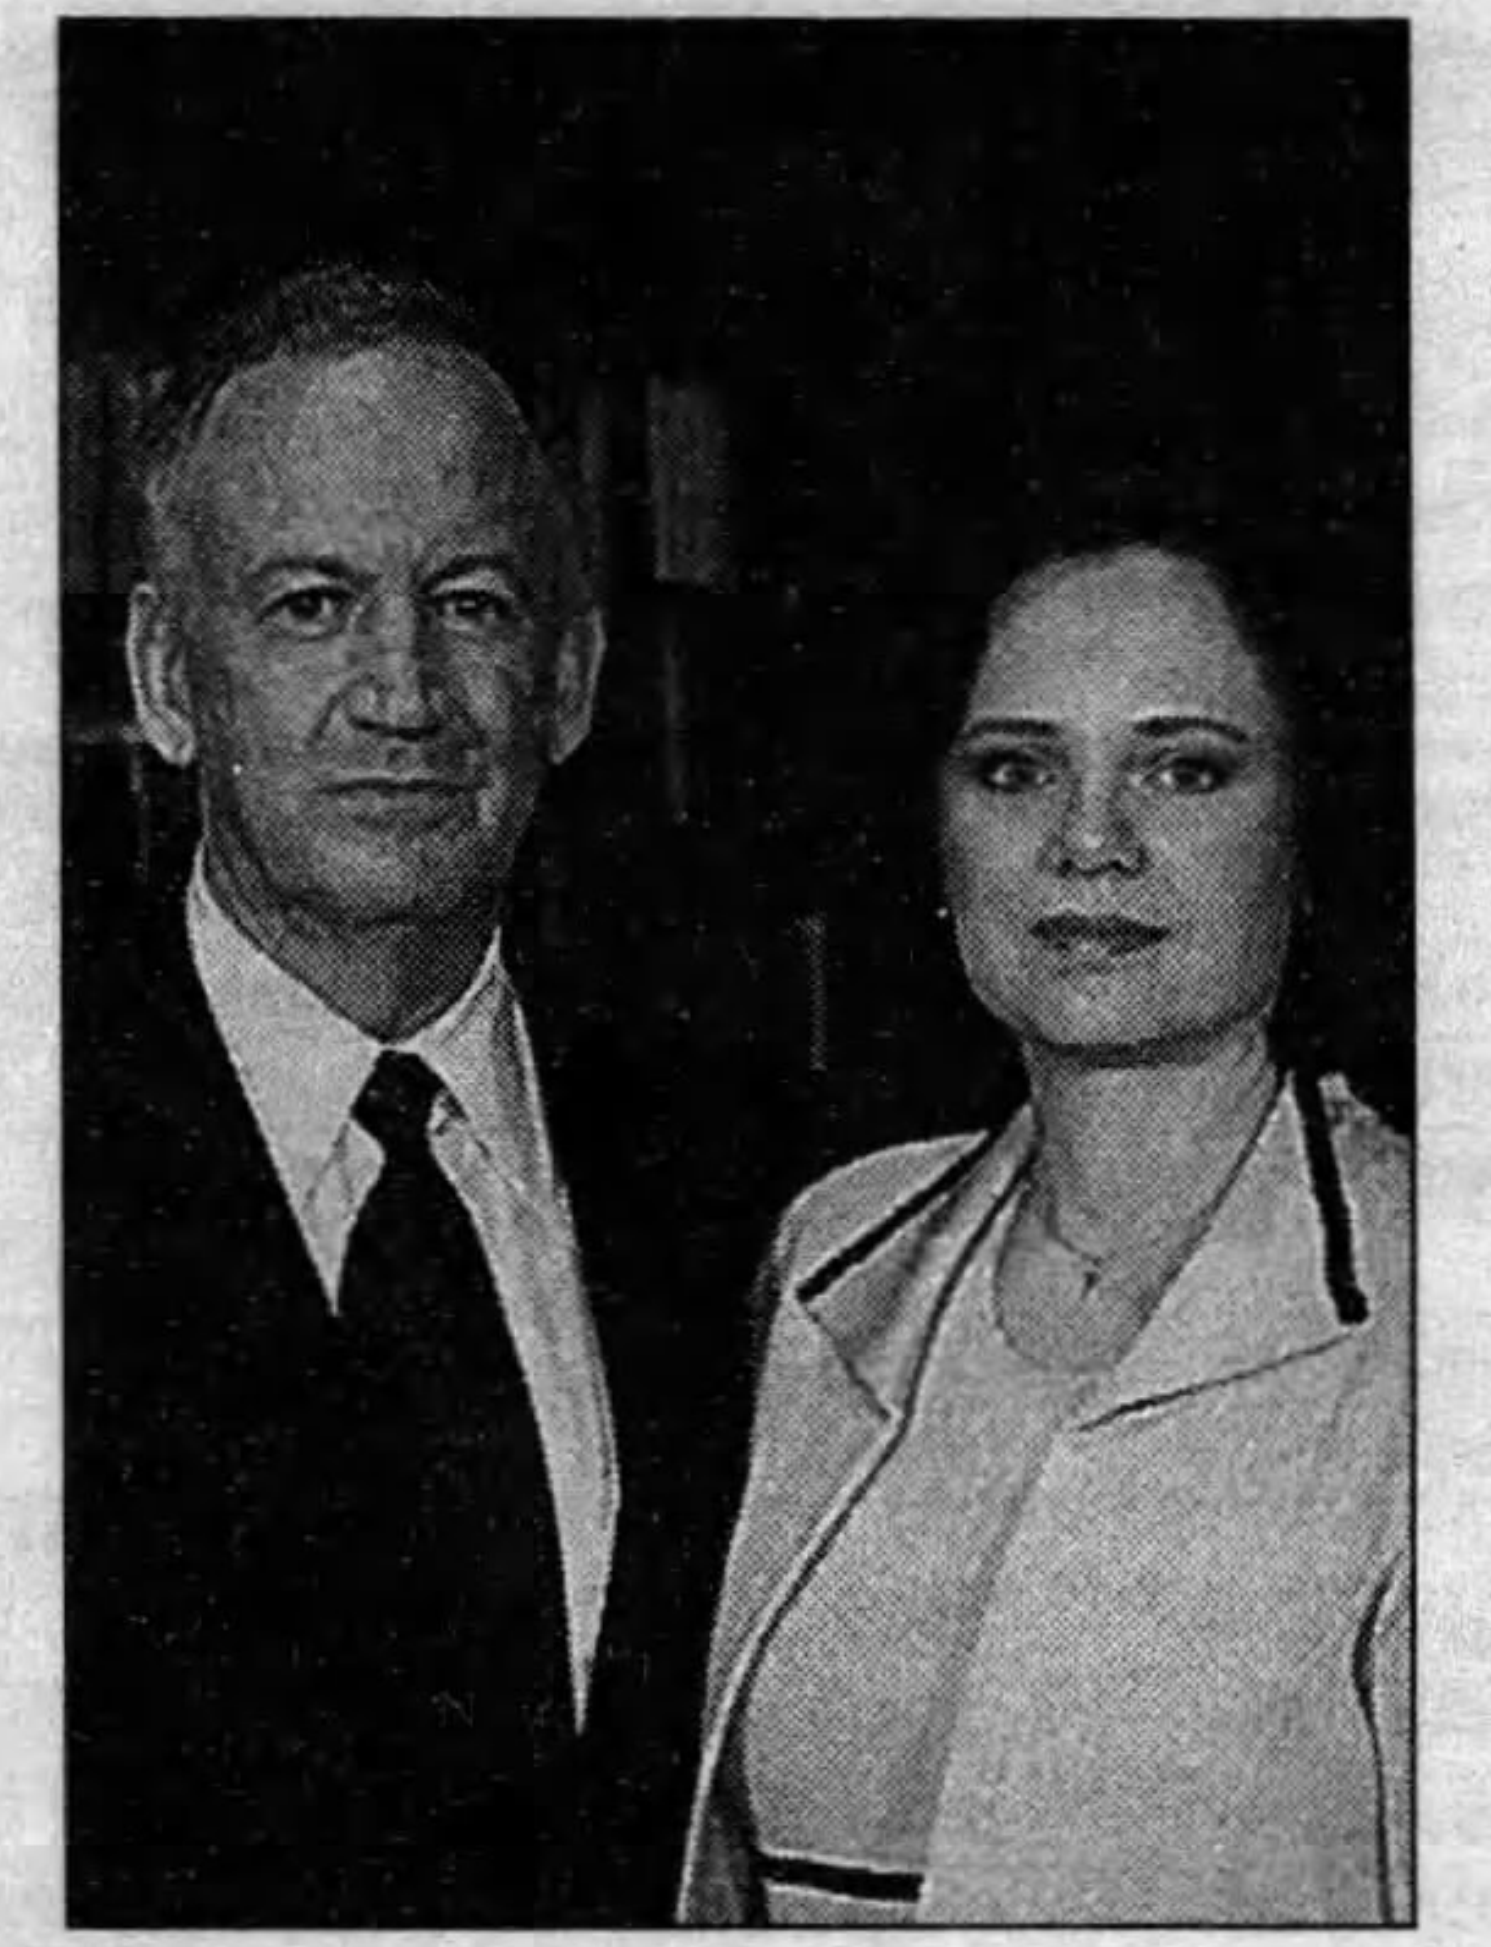
7:30 P.M. ON ABC

Girls, don't try this at home. Eager to look her best for the Winter Ball, Sabrina (Melissa Joan Hart) goes on a diet from the Other Realm that proves much too effective. She doesn't just shrink; she disappears. Speaking of shrinking, an angry Hilda (Caroline Rhea) takes desperate measures when a competitor threatens her shop, turning him into an insect. Beth Broderick also stars in the encore of "Now You See Her, Now You Don't."

NHL Hockey

7:30 P.M. ON ESPN

The Los Angeles Kings see how they stack up against one of the league's best when the St. Louis Blues pay a visit. The Blues have been a solid team all season, even with stars Pierre Turgeon and Al MacInnis missing extended action because of injuries. With 20 victories in its first 32 road games, St. Louis is the league's top team away from home. The Kings' season has been a roller-coaster ride, marked by a fast start and then a prolonged slump. Now, the team seems to be back on track, with the top line of Luc Robitaille, Jozef Stumpel and Ziggy Palffy each averaging at least a point a game.



John and Patsy Ramsey

20/20

Investigative Reports

8 P.M. ON A&E

It may be the ultimate con game: feigning love to gain a woman's trust, her hand in marriage and, ultimately, her money, while maintaining marital ties to one or more other women. Most bigamists are in it for the money, but they take a far greater toll on their victims' psyches than on their bank accounts. Seven victims, two perpetrators and a police psychologist discuss the cruel crime of bigamy in the encore of "Intimate Deception."

20/20

John and Patsy Ramsey, the parents of slain child beauty queen Jon-Benet Ramsey, are in the hot seat for their first no-holds-barred, no-lawyers interview since the murder. Both talk candidly with Barbara Walters about their daughter's death, the suspicion that continues to surround them (Did John sexually abuse the girl? Did Patsy kill her in a rage?) and their own theory about who killed JonBenet.

SATURDAY'S BEST BETS

Movie: Of Mice and Men
5 P.M. ON AMC

Fifty-three years separate these two adaptations of John Steinbeck's poignant tale of two men and a dream — testimony to its timelessness. The first, from 1939, stars Burgess Meredith as itinerant ranch hand George and Lon Chaney Jr. as his companion, the slow-witted gentle giant Lennie. Betty Field and Noah Beery Jr. also star. Up next is the 1992 version, directed by Gary Sinise and starring him as George.

Movie: White Squall
7 P.M. ON ABC

A freak storm tests the mettle of a group of prep-school boys spending their senior year sailing a square-rigger. Scott Wolf ("Party of Five"), Ryan Phillippe ("Cruel Intentions") and Balthazar Getty ("Natural Born Killers") star in this 1996 drama inspired by a true tragedy. Jeff Bridges plays the ship's skipper, with Caroline Goodall ("Schindler's List") as his wife. John Savage ("Message in a Bottle") also stars.

Cops
7 P.M. ON FOX

A visit to Fort Worth, Texas, finds a car chase getting more intense with one less car. More cops and a helicopter join the pursuit after the suspects get out of the allegedly stolen vehicle and start fleeing on foot. Also in "Fort Worth," a domestic-violence victim refuses to press charges, and a suspected prostitute admits to being high on crack — although her actions have already spoken louder than her words.

Jeff Bridges
WHITE SQUALL

The Pretender
7 P.M. ON NBC

A nightclub magician (guest star Patrick Dancy, "Brave New World") presiding over what appears to be a cult of young disciples may hold the key to a teen-ager's disappearance. While searching for the girl, Jarod (Michael T. Weiss) moves into a closed wax museum — from which he sends Miss Parker (Andrea Parker) a mysterious parcel. Patrick Bauchau also stars in the encore of "Angels Flight."

Movie: Pushing Tin
7 P.M. ON HBO

The arrival of a devil-may-care colleague (Billy Bob Thornton) threatens the on- and off-duty cool of a sharp young air traffic controller (John Cusack). The fact that the new cowboy in town has a hot young wife (Angelina Jolie) doesn't help matters. Cate Blanchett ("Elizabeth"), Vicki Lewis ("NewsRadio") and Jake Weber ("American Gothic") also star in this 1999 comedy directed by Mike Newell ("Donnie Brasco").

A Touch of Frost
8 P.M. ON A&E

In "One Man's Meat," Frost (David Jason) investigates two killings that appear unrelated at first. One is the beating and drowning of a teen-age runaway. The other is the apparent drowning death — miles away — of a health official who was investigating a meat-processing plant. Did one of the plant's owners take him out? And did drugs have something to do with both deaths? James McKenna and Bruce Alexander also star.

Swashbucklers and jurists thrive in syndication market

By John Crook
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Cover story

Bad guys may not have Hercules to kick around any longer, but TV isn't lacking for heroes and heroines, thanks to the thriving syndication market.

After Kevin Sorbo decided not to re-up for another season of "Hercules: The Legendary Journeys," executive producer Robert G. Tapert — also the mastermind behind sister show "Xena: Warrior Princess" — moved swiftly to fill an hour that had been a solid performer in the syndication marketplace.

The result: two colorful new half-hours starring "Hercules" alums Bruce Campbell and Gina Torres.

"Jack of All Trades" casts the irrepressible Campbell as Jack Stiles, an American spy dispatched to an island in the East Indies by President Thomas Jefferson to thwart the encroaching Napoleon (hilariously portrayed in a February sweeps episode by guest star Verne Troyer from "Austin Powers: The Spy Who Shagged Me"). The fast-paced half-hour boasts the kind of tongue-in-cheek action-adventure that Campbell has been perfecting since the "Evil Dead" movie series.

In fact, building a show around Campbell, who had scored big with viewers with recurring guest appearances as the rakish thief Autolycus on both "Hercules" and "Xena," was a no-brainer for Tapert, who has been friendly with the actor for 25 years.

There was just one problem: Campbell, a family man, balked at relocating to New Zealand, where "Jack" is filmed.

"I wanted to work with Bruce on what originally started out as a pirate project and evolved into "Jack of All Trades,"" Tapert explains, "but first he said no. Then he said yes. Then he said no, he didn't want to be away from his kids.

"Then I sent him the script and a schedule of when he would actually work and have breaks. And I said, 'We'll bring your kids down here,' and at least that got us into negotiations. He was willing to relocate for the summer months."

The companion half-hour to "Jack," "Cleopatra 2525," casts Torres — who had a recurring role as Nebula the pirate queen on "Hercules" — as Hel, one of three feisty women struggling to survive in a futuristic society in which monstrous airborne creatures have driven humanity underground.

"(With "Cleopatra"), we wanted to do a different form of sci-fi, something that took sci-fi in a different direction," Tapert says. "So we ended up with two half-hours that are (thematically) similar but visually different."

Whitford and Sorkin are 'A Few Good Men'

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Pipeline

I love the cast of NBC's "The West Wing." Can you tell me something more about Bradley Whitford, who plays Deputy Chief of Staff Josh Lyman? -Gerry Johnson, Asheville, N.C.

Wisconsin native Whitford, 41, previously worked with "West Wing" creator Aaron Sorkin when he took over the lead in the original Broadway production of "A Few Good Men."

Whitford made his TV series debut in the short-lived 1993 NBC sitcom "Black Tie Affair" and later starred in the 1998 ABC flop "The Secret Lives of Men."

His movie credits include "The Muse" and "Bicentennial Man," and he has guest starred on "ER," "The X-Files" and "NYPD Blue."

His wife, actress Jane Kaczmarek ("Malcolm in the Middle"), recently gave birth to their second child.

Why is John Cage nicknamed "The Biscuit" on "Ally McBeal"? -Jennifer B., Columbus, Ohio.

In the show, Cage (Peter MacNicol) didn't say how he got the name but did ~~explain that he~~ rec~~eived it in high~~ school.

"Ally" creator David E. Kelley says he pictures Cage as a kid resembling the Pillsbury Doughboy, always poked and prodded by his friends.

Are there any plans to make a "Buffy the Vampire Slayer" movie? When will it premiere, and will "Angel" cast members David Boreanaz and Charisma Carpenter be in it? -Mitch and George, Alliance, Ohio.

"Buffy" executive producer Joss Whedon says he does want to do "Buffy" movies, but not while the weekly TV series is still going strong. Since "Buffy" has several seasons left in it, there won't be a movie any time soon.

You can always rent the 1992 "Buffy the Vampire Slayer" movie that spawned the series. Written by Whedon, it stars Kristy Swanson as the slayer.

Can you provide information on the actress who appeared on "Frasier" as Kate Costas, the station manager? It's too bad she didn't get more time on the show. She was very good. -Ray Tobias, San Bruno, Calif.

The show's producers were able to snare Golden Globe and Oscar winner Mercedes Ruehl ("The Fisher King") to play Frasier's boss and romantic interest in that memorable story line.

This versatile actress is in demand virtually everywhere, so she simply was not available for a full-time series commitment.

I think I recognized the actress who plays Elizabeth Hawksworth Warden on "Keeping Up Appearances" in a Fig Newton commercial. Am I right? -M.I.B., Huntington, W.Va.

Yes, it's Josephine Tewson from "Appearances" in that 1998 Fig Newton commercial.

Vicky Pratt ("Cleopatra 2525") graduated summa cum laude with a degree in kinesiology. She is also a blue belt in Shotokan karate.

Actor-activist Mike Farrell is a member of Greenpeace, CONCERN/America, Human Rights Watch and Death Penalty Focus.

Lara Flynn Boyle ("The Practice") was named after a character in "Doctor Zhivago." She also auditioned for the role of Ally in "Ally McBeal.

Steve Harris ("The Practice") was featured in the documentary "Hoop Dreams" while he was pursuing a career in football and studying drama.

SUNDAY'S BEST BETS

NBA Basketball

11 A.M. ON NBC

They may fancy themselves in the "Showtime" mold, but the Los Angeles Lakers are proving they can get down and dirty when necessary. Coach Phil Jackson has sold his squad on defense, and stars such as Kobe Bryant are seeing results. Against the 76ers recently, Bryant held scoring leader Allen Iverson without a point in the second half, leading to a road win. Today, he may get the assignment guarding New York Knicks forward Latrell Sprewell, one of the NBA's most explosive players.

Auto Racing

11:30 A.M. ON ESPN

Not many people hope for rain, especially while taking a Sunday drive at speeds in excess of 120 mph. But a year ago at Darlington Raceway in South Carolina, the site of precipitation brightened Jeff Burton's day. Returning as defending champion of the Mall.com 400 (the Transouth Financial 400 in 1999), Burton has one crazy story to tell. Leading last year's race, Burton hit the wall moments before the day's second rain shower. Once the rain stopped, there was not enough daylight to restart, and Burton was declared the winner after 164 of the scheduled 293 laps.

ATP Tennis

2 P.M. ON FOX

One of the traditional highlights on the ATP Tour concludes with the men's final at the Tennis Masters Series Indian Wells tournament. A new stadium in Indian Wells, Calif., was just one of the many perks that attracted 64 of the world's top players, including Jim Courier, Pete Sampras, Marcelo Rios and defending champion Mark Philippoussis.

City Confidential

7 P.M. ON A&E

"Old Hollywood: Silent Stars, Deadly Secrets" revisits the mystery surrounding the 1922 murder of film director William Desmond Taylor. Whodunit? Screen comic Mabel Normand, his love interest? Teen-age actress Mary Miles Minter, who wanted to be? Minter's mom, who disapproved? A drug dealer? A male lover? Director King Vidor reopened the case more than 40 years later, but the murderer's identity remained secret until after Vidor's death.

Movie: The Color of Love: Jacey's Story

8 P.M. ON CBS

A series of shocks jolts a white Southern widow (Gena Rowlands). First, there's the news that her estranged daughter died. Next, the daughter's orphaned little girl, who's black, shows up in need of a guardian. Then she has competition for custody from the child's paternal grandfather (Louis Gossett Jr.), with whom her family has a tense history. But the best interests of little Jacey help tear down the walls on both sides. Penny Fuller and Penny Bae Bridges co-star in this uplifting new drama.

Dr. Laura's TV show is making waves in syndication

Talk the Talk

By Lorri Antosz Benson
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

This is the "wait and see" season for developing shows that are hoping for a fall launch.

Producers for the many court shows and the few talk shows exhibited at this year's National Association of Television Program Executives are cooling their heels waiting for green lights on their projects.

This toe-tapping, finger-drumming phase is described by one executive as "lame duck limbo." One doesn't know whether to plan a three-month sojourn to Tibet or get ready for the frenzy of hiring, scheduling and organizing.

Although talk was not king at the convention, some gabfests did make the grade. Columbia TriStar Television's gender-based "Men Are From Mars, Women Are From Venus" will get great exposure airing on NBC owned-and-operated stations.

Another sure bet to launch is the show hosted by Dr. Laura Schlessinger. Currently heard on some 400 radio stations, Schlessinger's preachy brand of advice has already generated controversy toward her TV show.

The Gay and Lesbian Alliance Against Defamation protested to Paramount Television, the show's developer, that Schlessinger's outspoken beliefs about homosexuality go over the line of discrimination. Her references to homosexual behavior as "deviant" and a "biological error" aren't well received by the gay community, nor is her promotion of therapies that seek to help gays "become" heterosexual.

Although Schlessinger did not attend a recent pow-wow between parties, Paramount executives assured GLAAD that the TV show will present many points of view and not just those of the opinionated host.

The host of "Late Night With David Letterman" made a triumphant return after a forced health hiatus. Letterman was greeted affectionately by guests, TV executives and fans alike.

The ratings reflected the relief experienced at his recovery. New York establishments welcomed him back with open arms — especially since business dropped 50 percent during his absence!

David Letterman

Only one dark shadow was cast on Letterman's otherwise sunny return: the brightly lit Letterman billboard erected by CBS.

Across from that sign and the Ed Sullivan Theater lives elderly Anna Soares, who filed a $13 million lawsuit against CBS because she claims the lights have rendered her fourth-floor studio apartment uninhabitable. CBS was ordered to solve the problem.

MONDAY'S BEST BETS

Movie: A Tale of Two Bunnies

7 P.M. ON ABC

Julie Condra ("Michael Landon, the Father I Knew") and rookie actress Marina Black star in this new drama as small-town gals in Chicago who pursue the hottest new career path for Windy City women in the early 1960s: waiting tables at the Playboy Club. Marilu Henner ("Taxi") and Rhea Perlman ("Cheers") play the Bunny Mother and the costumer charged with turning ordinary young women into fantasy figures.

Freaks and Geeks

7 P.M. ON NBC

In "Chokin and Tokin," Lindsay (Linda Cardellini), high on marijuana for the first time, suddenly remembers she's supposed to baby-sit and asks Millie for a hand. Bill is in even bigger trouble. He's allergic to peanuts, and Alan has put some in his food, landing him in the hospital. Jason Segel also stars.

Titus

7:30 P.M. ON FOX

What's so funny about a dysfunctional family? Plenty, if you're Christopher Titus. The stand-up comic draws on his own life for this new sitcom, in which his character, a hot-rod builder, deals with the triple challenges of an alcoholic, five-times-married father (Stacy Keach), an institutionalized mother and a relatively normal relationship with a girlfriend (Cynthia Watros) who wouldn't give him the time of day in high school. Zack Ward also stars in "Sex With Pudding."

Julie Condra

A TALE OF TWO BUNNIES

Ally McBeal

8 P.M. ON FOX

The firm gets a taste of the big-crime big time when one of Cage's eccentric clients is accused of murder. Ally is only too happy to take on the role of snoop — er, investigator — and dig up just the facts, ma'am. Billy could use a facts fix; he's in the throes of some weird hallucinations.

Investigative Reports

8 P.M. ON A&E

Host Bill Kurtis kicks off a week-long look at the problems of America's youth with "Playing to Extremes," which explores the high-pressure world of young athletes. It visits with an eighth-grade boy who's practically a full-time soccer player, a 12-year-old figure skater whose life revolves around her pursuit of Olympic glory, and a 14-year-old female basketball star who's already caught college recruiters' eyes.

The Ultimate Guide

8 P.M. ON DISC

Even if you're 80, you can't cop to having old bones; we humans get a new skeleton every 10 years. That's one of the tidbits in "Human Body," a fascinating hour that uses computer animation, time-lapse photography, MRI images and other techniques to get up close and personal with nature's most magnificent machine. Highlights include a visit with a champion boxer to see how wounds heal and a microscopic tour of the busy miniature factory working overtime in every cell.

TUESDAY'S BEST BETS

JAG
7 P.M. ON CBS

A letter critical of the president hits the papers, and Harm's (David James Elliott) future hits the fan. When the critical comments are traced to him, he's faced with the possible loss of his promotion and a new role in the courtroom: defendant. Patrick Labyorteaux and Karri Turner also star in the encore of "Contemptuous Words," which is based on a true story.

NBA Basketball
7 P.M. ON TNT

If the New York Knicks have designs on another run to the NBA Finals, they need to start winning games on the road. The problem lately has come when coach Jeff Van Gundy goes to his bench, and the reserves lose whatever lead the starters have gained. Tonight's test is as tough as it gets since the Knicks' opponents, the Indiana Pacers, have the NBA's best home record. Jalen Rose is one reason the Pacers play so well at the Conseco Fieldhouse. His 6-foot-8 size and ability to take smaller defenders inside present problems for the opposition, and the Pacers routinely take advantage of mismatches.

The Beat
8 P.M. ON UPN

Two young New York cops try to keep the peace on the streets and at home in this new drama from Barry Levinson and Tom Fontana ("Homicide: Life on the Street"). "And the Beat Goes On" introduces Officers Dorigan and Marinelli (Derek Cecil, Mark Ruffalo) and their respective gal pals: Dorigan's lovely med-student girlfriend, Elizabeth (Poppy Montgomery, "Relativity"), and Marinelli's psycho sweetie, Beatrice (Heather Burns, "You've Got Mail"). "Homicide" and "Law & Order: Special Victims Unit" fans can look forward to occasional appearances by Detective Munch (Richard Belzer).

IN FOCUS

Bill Kurtis hosts a weeklong look at the issues surrounding children at risk in A&E Network's Investigative Reports.

On Monday, March 20, the pressure some young athletes feel from parents and coaches is explored in "Playing to Extremes."

Tuesday's episode, "Every Parent's Nightmare," examines ways to prevent deaths and accidents caused by child-care providers.

Other topics include college administrations that have covered up foul play to save face, the Baltimore juvenile system and teens' views on the Columbine High School tragedy.

WEDNESDAY'S BEST BETS

Beverly Hills, 90210
7 P.M. ON FOX

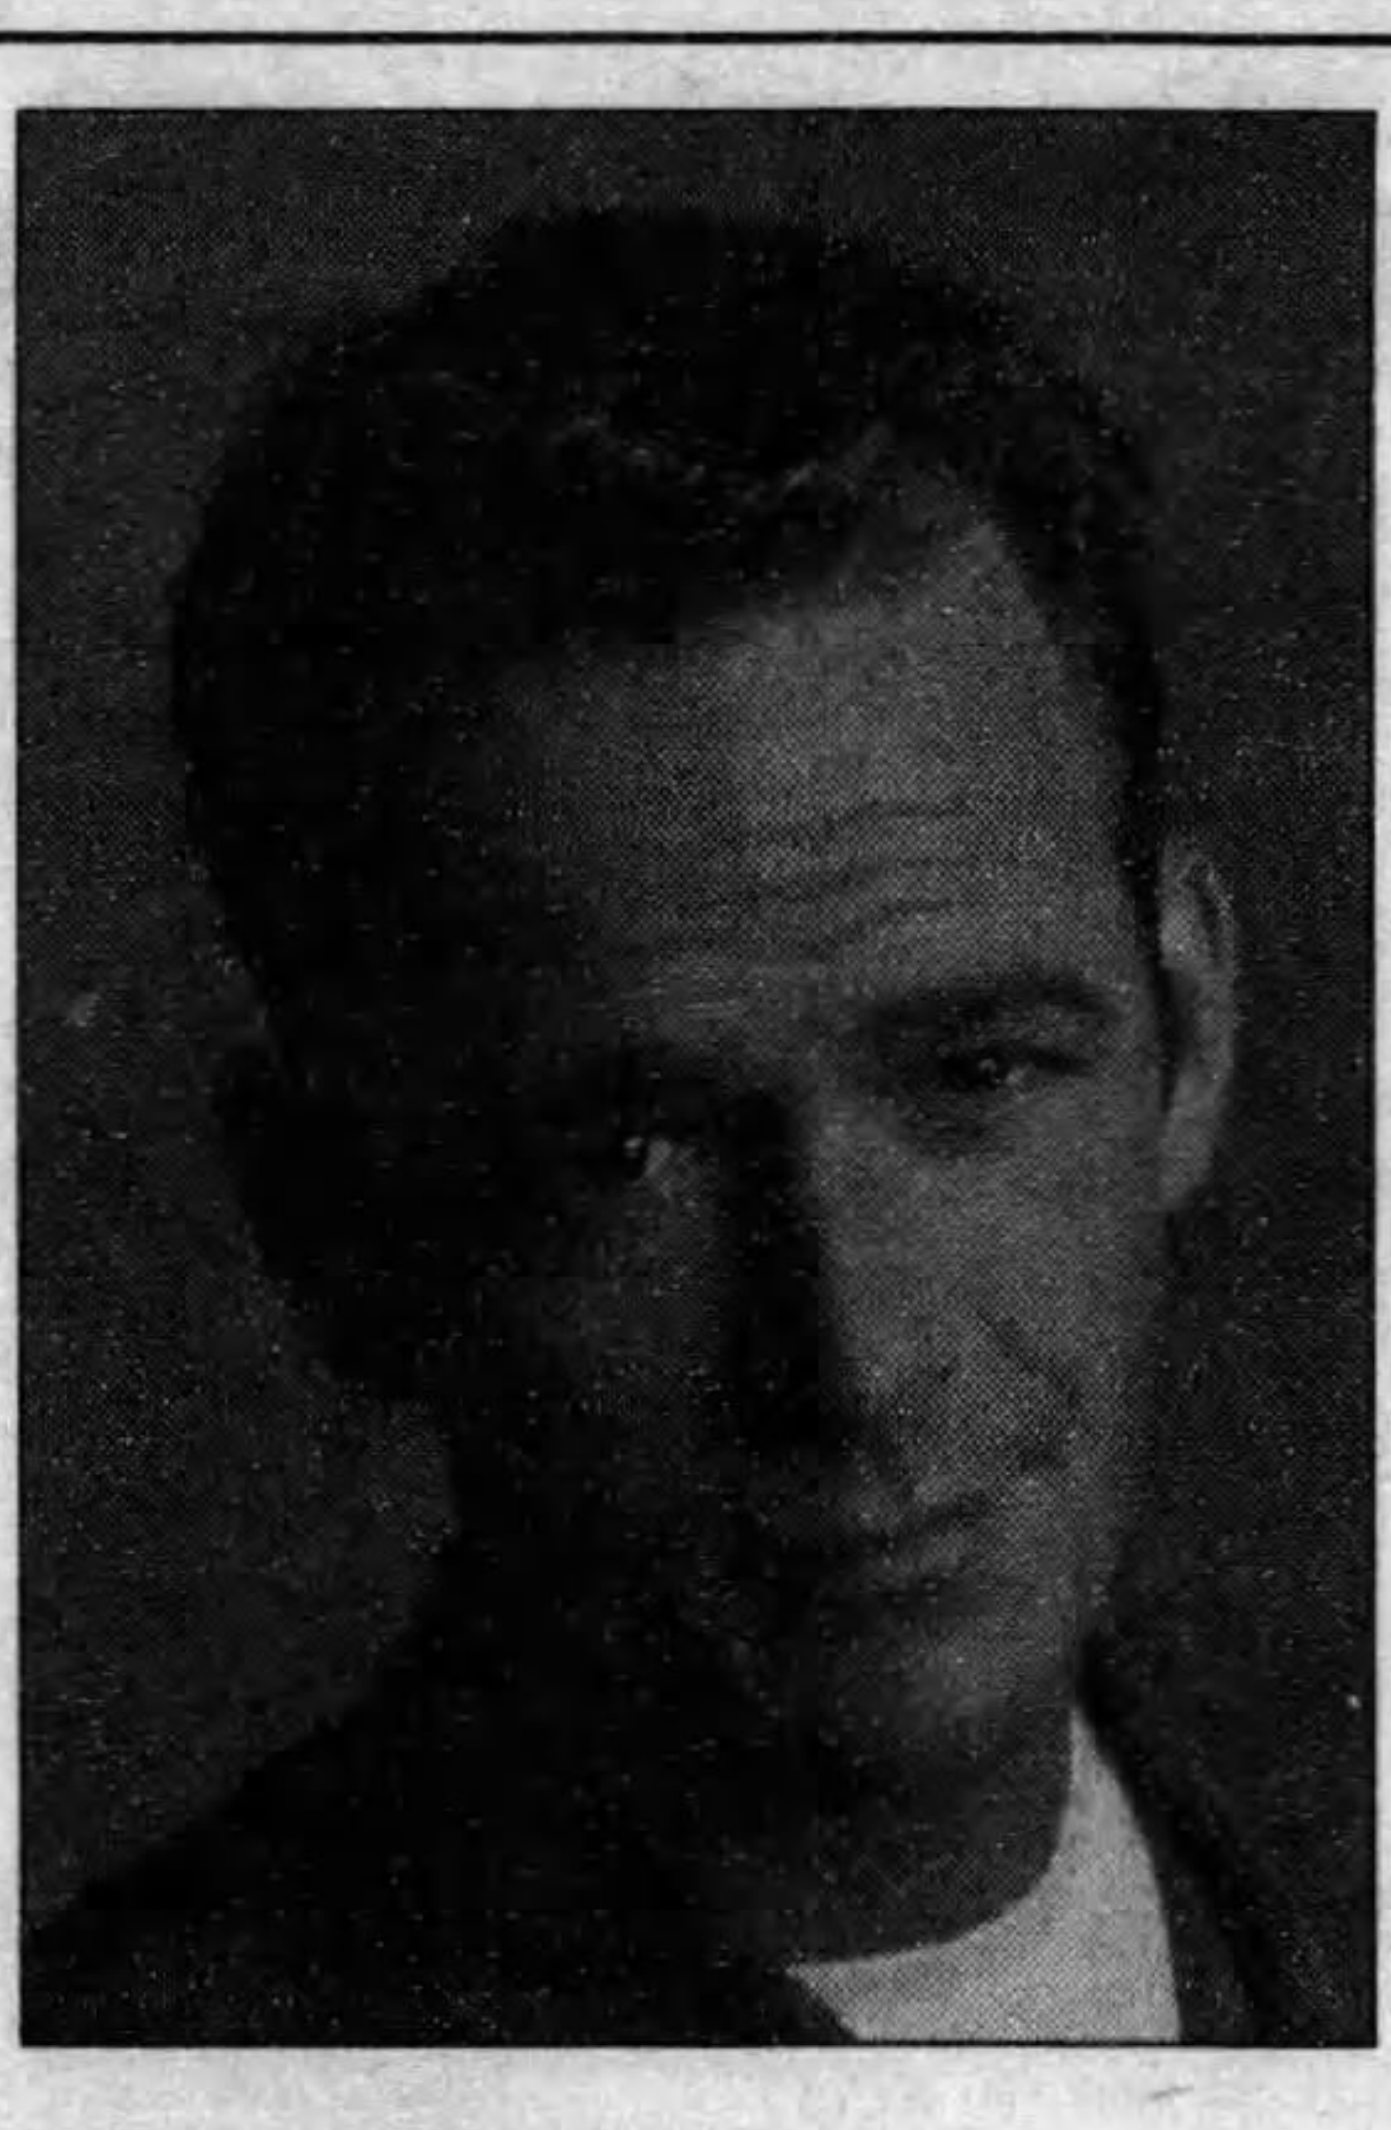
A dirt-biking excursion with Dylan (Luke Perry) could cost Matt (Daniel Cosgrove) his relationship with Kelly (Jennie Garth) when the trip ends at a wild rave party in the desert. Back home, Kelly defies Steve (Ian Ziering) to use little Maddy in an ad campaign. Noah (Vincent Young) befriends a woman at his AA meeting who may be hiding a secret or two. Tori Spelling also stars in "Spring Fever."

On the Inside
7 P.M. ON DISC

Figure skating is still more art than science, but today's competitors are embracing technology as they attempt to distill years of training and practice into those few critical moments before the judges. "Figure Skating" goes behind the scenes of the skating world to see how they prepare for competition and how computers and other high-tech aids help them perfect their moves. Among those spotlighted is Naomi Nari Nam, 14, a silver medalist at last year's national championships.

Then Came You
7:30 P.M. ON ABC

Series co-creator Betsy Thomas ("My So-Called Life") drew on her own life for this new romantic comedy series about a Chicago book editor in her 30s (Susan Floyd) who falls hard for a much-younger waiter (Thomas Newton). Miriam Shor, Desmond Askew and Colin Ferguson also star in "Pilot."



Luke Perry
BEVERLY HILLS, 90210

Movie: Primal Fear
8 P.M. ON CBS

Criminal defense attorney Martin Vail (Richard Gere) brazenly seeks the media spotlight as he volunteers to represent a penniless, soft-spoken altar boy who stands accused of viciously murdering a prominent Chicagoan. Laura Linney, John Mahoney, Alfre Woodard and Frances McDormand also star.

Law & Order
9 P.M. ON NBC

The murder of a white youth in Harlem becomes a political football in "Black, White and Blue." The case appears simple at first; Briscoe and Green (Jerry Orbach, Jesse L. Martin) have two suspects who boasted about doing the deed. But later, McCoy and Carmichael (Sam Waterston, Angie Harmon) uncover a disturbing connection to a pair of police officers.

American Justice
9 P.M. ON A&E

Almost 10 years ago, a two-day killing spree rocked Gainesville, Fla. Five female University of Florida students were fatally stabbed, and the town went into full panic mode. After a few false starts, police soon zeroed in on a suspect: a 36-year-old drifter whose DNA linked him to the crimes. A mental-illness defense wasn't enough to sway the jury, which recommended execution. Interviews with police, lawyers and the convicted killer himself, now on death row, help tell the story in "Murder in a College Town."

THURSDAY'S BEST BETS

The 14th Annual American Comedy Awards

7 P.M. ON FOX

The funniest folks on the big and small screens are honored in this gala taped last month in Los Angeles. "Frasier," "Everybody Loves Raymond," and "Will & Grace" are up for the prize as funniest TV series, while "American Beauty," "Being John Malkovich" and "Analyze This" are nominated for funniest movie. "Mad About You" has a lock on the category of funniest male guest appearance in a TV series.

Friends

7 P.M. ON NBC

Rachel (Jennifer Aniston) is short an escort for a charity bash, but never fear; Monica and Phoebe (Courteney Cox Arquette, Lisa Kudrow) are on the case, eagerly scrounging for suitors as if there were a Matchmaker of the Year award at stake. Ross (David Schwimmer) frets when his new girlfriend (guest star Alexandra Holden) announces she's Florida-bound for some spring-break revelry. Joey (Matt LeBlanc) pulls out all the stops with his pals in an effort to get a new refrigerator in "The One With Joey's Fridge."

Movie: Sunset Boulevard

7 P.M. ON AMC

This unforgettable 1950 drama was nominated for a whopping 11 Oscars but passed over for the big ones. Gloria Swanson is brilliant as Norma Desmond, the deranged ex-movie queen pathetically planning a comeback. William Holden plays the young scriptwriter who is sucked into her world.

FRIENDS

Daddio

7:30 P.M. ON NBC

Salesman Chris Woods gives up the road to be a stay-at-home father when his wife decides to indulge her dream of becoming a lawyer. The parenting part is easy compared to the odd looks and put-downs that greet househusbands, but all you need to know about Chris is that he's played by Michael Chiklis ("The Commish").

Investigative Reports

8 P.M. ON A&E

The two-hour "Juvies" follows four Baltimore teens struggling to get their lives on track, helped — and sometimes hindered — by the juvenile-justice system. For some, it's easier than others.

Battery Park

8:30 P.M. ON NBC

This new sitcom set in a New York police precinct has echoes of another cop comedy, but the boss here is no laid-back Barney Miller. She's Capt. Madeleine Dunleavy (Elizabeth Perkins), who's long on ambition (she wants to be mayor) but short on that vital political skill: diplomacy. Justin Louis, Frank Grillo, Bokeem Woodbine, Jay Paulson and Jacqueline Obradors also star as, respectively, the second in command, the comic-relief duo, the rookie and Dunleavy's lone female subordinate in "Pilot."

Biography

The encore of "Lesley Ann Warren: A Cinderella Story" chronicles the life of the actress who, at 53, can finally say she's shed the image of the fairytale heroine from Rodgers & Hammerstein's "Cinderella." Clips from that '60s TV production — an annual appointment-viewing event for a generation of youngsters — and from her other films, including her Oscar-nominated turn in "Victor/Victoria," illustrate the profile.

Making the Band

8 P.M. ON ABC

MTV fictionalized the process in a recent TV movie, but this new series gives you the real thing: the making of a boy band. It follows the evolution of O-Town, a five-man pop group, from the national talent search for members to the chosen few's triumphant recording and concert debut. Lou Pearlman, no stranger to the process (he had a hand in putting together the Backstreet Boys and 'N Sync), is one of the show's creators.

Movie: Shadowlands

8 P.M. ON USA

This bittersweet 1993 drama stars Anthony Hopkins as British author and theologian C.S. Lewis ("The Chronicles of Narnia") and Debra Winger as Joy Gresham, an American Jewish divorcee with whom he falls in love. Reluctant at first to become a husband and stepfather in middle age, Lewis begins to acknowledge his true feelings when Joy is diagnosed with cancer. Winger's performance earned her an Oscar nomination.

LAW & ORDER: SPECIAL VICTIMS UNIT

Law & Order: Special Victims Unit

9 P.M. ON NBC

In the encore of "Stocks & Bondage," a successful businesswoman with an unusual sexual appetite is found dead, and Benson and Stabler (Mariska Hargitay, Christopher Meloni) must determine whether it's suicide or homicide, and whether those diamonds she bought — $10 million worth — had anything to do with her death. The investigation takes them on a wild ride through the sexual bondage scene, where everyone's too tied up to talk to them. Dann Florek also stars.

IN FOCUS

Gena Rowlands (top) plays a white Southern widow trying to establish a relationship with her newfound black granddaughter, played by Penny Bae Bridges, in The Color of Love: Jacey's Story, airing Sunday, March 19, on CBS.

Georgia Porter (Rowlands) is shocked to learn her estranged daughter and her daughter's husband were killed in a car accident, leaving behind 6-year-old Jacey.

But more surprises await her as Jacey's paternal grandfather (Louis Gossett Jr.) visits and decides he wants to raise her, too.

SATURDAY'S BEST BETS

Big Wolf on Campus

10:30 A.M. ON FAM

"Frank Stein" is a twist on the "Young Frankenstein" premise. Remember when Igor dropped the great thinker's brain and brought Dr. F. an abnormal one instead? The mad scientist in this version vows to get a smarter brain — Merton's (Danny Smith) — for his reanimation experiment after his assistant delivers a mediocre specimen. It's up to Tommy (Brandon Quinn) to keep his buddy's head together. Aimee Castle also stars.

College Basketball

12:30 P.M. ON CBS

A day of college hoops begins at the Commonwealth Convention Center in Louisville, Ky., with the NCAA Division II championship game. From there, two regional finals in the NCAA Division I tournament take center court. First, CBS moves north to Auburn Hills, Mich., for the Midwest regional final. And then Albuquerque, N.M., is the site for the day's third game, the final in the West regional.

Movie: Sling Blade

7 P.M. ON ABC

Billy Bob Thornton won a writing Oscar for this 1996 drama, which he also directed and starred in. He plays a mentally challenged man institutionalized for killing his mother and her lover when he was 12. Newly released and gainfully employed, he has no desire to kill again until he befriends a boy (Lucas Black, "American Gothic") whose mother (Natalie Canerday) is hooked up with an abusive, obnoxious drunk (Dwight Yoakam). John Ritter and Robert Duvall also star.

Biography

7 P.M. ON A&E

The encore of "Gene Tierney: A Shattered Portrait" profiles the actress whose private life bore no resemblance to her public one. From the outside, it was a fairy tale: a successful stage career followed by big-screen stardom and romances with powerful men. But inside, she struggled with a devastating depression that led to hospitalization and dozens of electroshock treatments. Clips from "Laura," "Heaven Can Wait" and Tierney's other memorable films help tell her story.

The Others

In "The Ones That Lie in Wait," a group of evil spirits called the Rabisu is trying to get inside the Others' world ... and their minds, to find out their deepest desires. Elmer senses the demons' presence and summons his friends to his house to help ward them off.

8 P.M. ON USA

Movie: Cape Fear

Martin Scorsese directed this 1991 remake of the 1962 thriller about an ex-convict seeking revenge on the attorney who compromised his defense 14 years earlier. Unlike the earlier work, this one blurs the lines between good and evil, evoking sympathy for the ex-con and questioning the lawyer's integrity.

FEATURE STORY

By John Briggs
© TVData Features Syndicate

America seems to like its dysfunctional families either cute ("Malcolm in the Middle") or outrageous" "("Married ... With Children"). "Titus" is neither of those.

Comic Christopher Titus plays the titular character, a custom-car shop owner, in this midseason show from Fox, which premieres Monday, March 20.

He's just moved out of the house, leaving behind his younger brother, Dave (Zack Ward), and alcoholic, five-times-married father (Stacy Keach).

"Stacy's so good, he scares me," the 34-year-old Titus says. "The first day on the set, my wife sees him sitting in the chair holding a beer, and she just screamed, 'Oh, my God, he is your father!' "

The show sprang not only from Titus' imagination, but from reality. His greatest success as a stand-up comic came after he finally brought his troubled childhood to the stage, not only exploring his own psyche but also taking his "Leave It to Beaver" neighbors to task.

ABC's 'Wonderland' is a different kind of hospital

By Jacqueline Cutler
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Cover story

Hospital shows, like much on television, have grown more realistic over the years. Viewers watch internal procedures once the domain of medical students and may get the feeling that there's no part of the human body that hasn't been dissected before their eyes.

"Wonderland," a gritty new drama premiering on ABC Thursday, March 30, goes where most viewers haven't: into the minds of psychiatric patients and the lives of doctors who treat them.

This is one very different — and deeply disturbing — hospital show. It's also sensitively written, beautifully acted and cast so well that it's hard to imagine some of the actors playing patients landing other roles.

Peter Berg, writer, director and producer of "Wonderland," was determined to make a realistic show. After months of research at New York's Bellevue Hospital, he came away extremely impressed with the work that goes on there. He succeeded brilliantly in his effort not to sugarcoat the pain and desperation, but even he isn't sure whether the show, airing opposite NBC's "ER," will succeed.

"I think it should air at 10, and in reality, there aren't that many slots," he concedes. "Going up against "ER," there are lowered expectations, and we are going to have to do something right to attract a core audience. I'm not thrilled about the time slot, but I am thrilled that the show got picked."

Scheduled after ABC's megahit "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire," the show's biggest obstacle to success may be the material itself. Will people, unwinding after a hard day at work, dealing with their own crises or just craving a couple of hours of escapism, tune in to a show where patients hallucinate about a miniature rhinoceros tooling around by their slippers? As the show reminds us, psychiatric patients are "the shadow people. The people society would prefer go away."

Berg, once the obnoxious Dr. Billy Kronk on "Chicago Hope," began thinking about this series four years ago. While he was growing up in Chappaqua, N.Y., his mother was a volunteer at Cornell Hospital in White Plains, so this world wasn't completely foreign to him.

The exceptionally strong cast includes Joelle Carter ("The Horse Whisperer") as Dr. Heather Miles, Ted Levine ("The Silence of the Lambs") as Dr. Robert Banger, Michelle Forbes ("Homicide: Life on the Street") as Dr. Lyla Garrity, Martin Donovan ("Portrait of a Lady") as Dr. Neil Harrison and Michael Jai White ("Freedom Song") as Dr. Derrick Hatcher.

Ryan Reynolds once starred in ‘Fifteen’

Pipeline

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

I am convinced that Ryan Reynolds, who plays Michael Leslie “Berg” Bergen of “Two Guys and a Girl,” was a child actor. Was he on Nickelodeon’s “Fifteen”? If so, what was his character’s name? -Joanna Wilson, Charlotte, N.C.

Vancouver-born Reynolds, now 23, made his TV series debut in 1991 as Billy Simpson in “Fifteen.” He also played Macro in “The Odyssey,” a critically acclaimed Canadian children’s sci-fi series that aired in the United States on the Sci-Fi Channel.

Reynolds stars with Jerry O’Connell, Annabeth Gish and Alyssa Milano in the movie “Buying the Cow,” a comedy scheduled for release later this year.

How old was Michael Chiklis when he starred in “The Commish”? What is he doing now? -P. Haan, El Paso, Texas.

Chiklis is 36, which means he was 28 when “The Commish” premiered in 1991. Chiklis is currently starring in the ~~Thursday sitcom~~ “Da~~ddie.” NBC is giv~~ing it a trial run through April.

Did Kim Delaney play Jenny Gardner Nelson on “All My Children”? -Carolyn L., Columbus, Ohio.

Yes, Delaney first played Jenny from 1981-84, then returned to the role for part of 1994.

Why did Kellie Martin’s character die on “ER”? She was one of the better ones on the show. -Bob Herron, Jonesboro, Ga.

There were reports that she was unhappy with the story lines her character got in the increasingly cluttered “ER” cast.

Martin told TV writers simply that “it is time for me to move on.” Show producers approved her departure.

I remember a series about a boy named Jaimie McPheeters who traveled on a wagon train. Did it feature the Osmond Brothers? -Georgie O’Neill, Colorado Springs, Colo.

Based on Robert Lewis Taylor’s 1958 Pulitzer Prize-winning novel, “The Travels of Jaimie McPheeters” (ABC, 1963-64) starred Kurt Russell in the title role and Dan O’Herlihy as his father, Doc Sardius McPheeters. The singing Osmond Brothers played the Kissel Boys.

In what show did Andy Griffith play the owner of a “space salvage company”? -Marge Nagle, Bergenfield, N.J.

Griffith played Harry Broderick, proprietor of the Jettison Scrap and Salvage Company, in “Salvage 1” (ABC, 1979).

When did “Moonlighting” air on ABC? -Regina P., Gulfport, Miss.

The romantic comedy series, starring Cybill Shepherd as Madelyn “Maddie” Hayes and Bruce Willis as David Addison, premiered on March 3, 1985. The final episode aired May 14, 1989.

SUNDAY'S BEST BETS

Auto Racing

12 P.M. ON ESPN

Rusty Wallace looks to continue his mastery of the Bristol Motor Speedway when he defends his Winston Cup Food City 500 title. Last year, he led for 425 of the 500 laps. Even Mark Martin, who finished only .223 seconds behind him, was surprised he came that close at the end. That was the extent of Wallace's domination, further enhancing his reputation as the champion of short-track racing. It was his 22nd career win on one of NASCAR's short tracks, and his seventh at Bristol.

PGA Golf

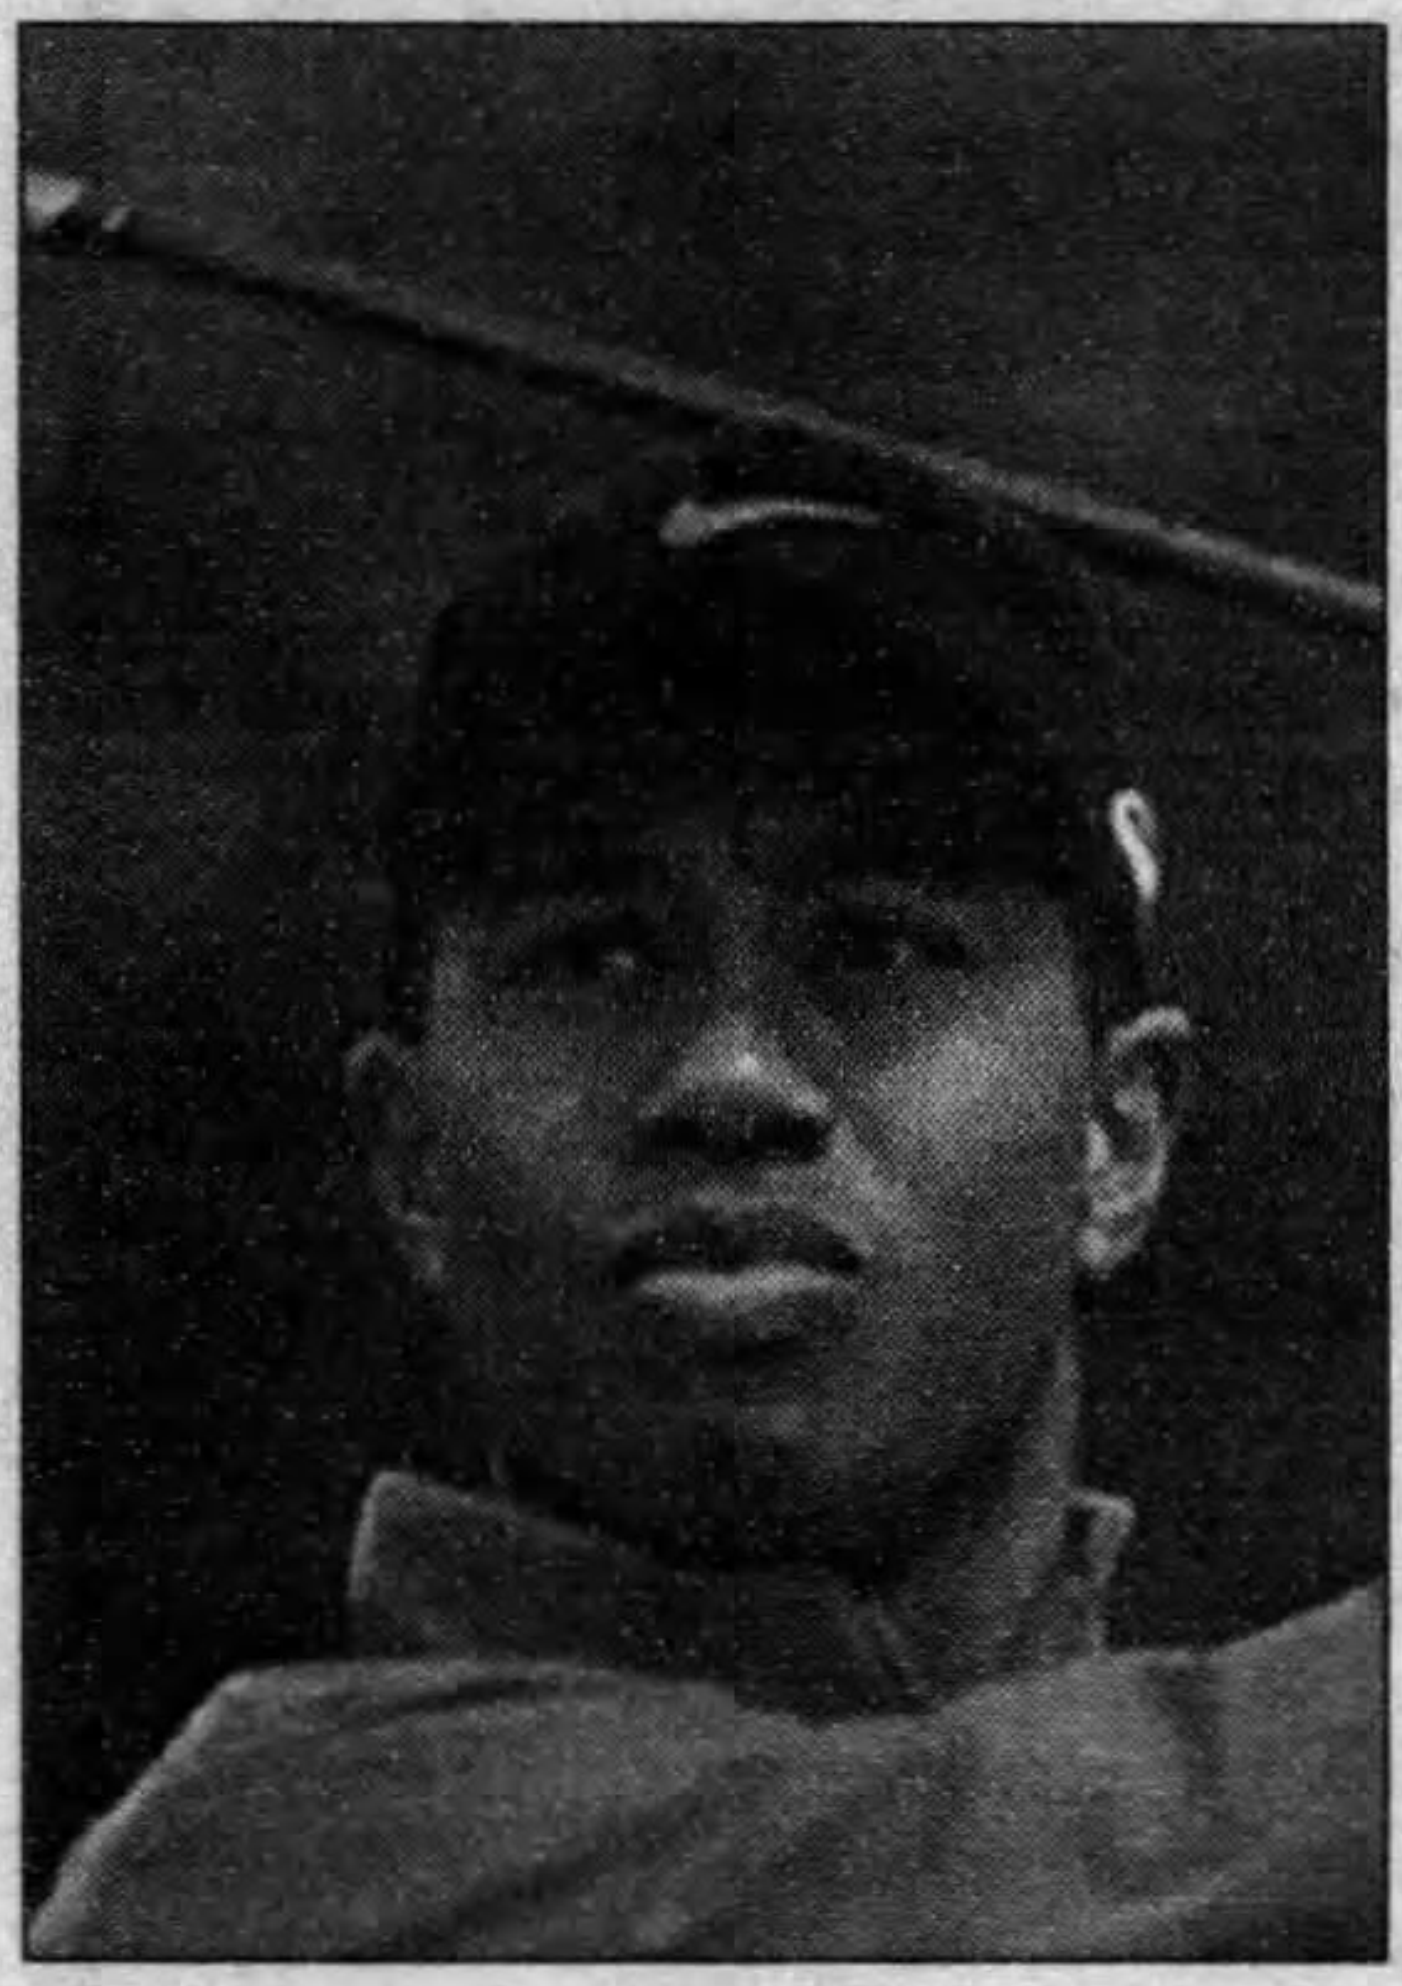
2 P.M. ON NBC

The day couldn't have been more perfect for David Duval. Playing in front of his hometown fans in a tournament he dreamed of winning as a kid, Duval kept his nerves in check to win the 1999 Players Championship. What's more, Duval's father, Bob, won his first Senior PGA Tour tournament that day, marking the first time a father and son won on the same weekend. Duval should be in contention again, along with his rival and friend Tiger Woods, in the final round of the PGA Tour's showcase event in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla. The course is challenging, highlighted by the treacherous 17th green surrounded by water.

The Barbara Walters Special

6 P.M. ON ABC

If it's Oscar night, it must be time for Walters to pick some celebrity brains. This year, she talks with singing sensation Ricky Martin; Mike Myers, the versatile comic actor who's risen to a new level of stardom as Austin Powers; and Michael Douglas and Catherine Zeta-Jones, Hollywood's hottest lovebirds and soon-to-be parents.



Tiger Woods
PGA GOLF

Touched by an Angel

7 P.M. ON CBS

The angels help a family of migrant workers whose teen-age son (guest star Carlo Alban) wants to study music instead of laboring in the fields. Although he has a chance to attend a music school, the opportunity may be snatched from him when his father (guest star Efrain Figueroa) hurts his back, threatening his ability to support the family. Alexis Cruz returns in the recurring role of the angel Raphael. Roma Downey and Della Reese also star in the encore of "The Letter."

Academy Awards

7:30 P.M. ON ABC

The 72nd Oscar gala is one for the record books. Richard Farnsworth ("The Straight Story") sets a new one as the oldest best actor nominee ever (he's 79). Meryl Streep's 12th best actress nod ("Music of the Heart") ties her with Katharine Hepburn for most-nominated actor. And emcee Billy Crystal holds the record for the most Emmy nominations for an Oscar show host. "American Beauty" leads the best picture race with eight nominations, followed by "The Cider House Rules" and "The Insider" with seven each, "The Sixth Sense" with six, and "The Green Mile" with four.

O'Donnell takes on Hollywood

Talk the Talk

By Lorri Antosz Benson
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Rating periods can be exhausting for talk show hosts, especially Rosie O'Donnell.

Last month, O'Donnell ran around Los Angeles like crazy, visiting the sets of one hit show after another. Her whirlwind tour included a stop at "ER," where cast members Eriq La Salle and Alex Kingston personally showed O'Donnell the inside of the operating room.

That same day, she toured the Oval Office on the set of "The West Wing" and shared a few laughs with the cast of "Whose Line Is It Anyway?"

O'Donnell also took a karaoke spinning class with "Will & Grace" star Megan Mullally. The actress who plays snobby Karen Walker isn't into working out, but she was able to hide the intimidation she felt being at the popular Crunch Fitness gym, especially on the air, from the audience.

It couldn't have been that easy for O'Donnell, either. Before meeting Mullally, she met actress Jennifer Love Hewitt ("Time of Your Life") for a burger at the fast-food joint Johnny Rockets. She probably felt more like napping than spinning!

O'Donnell's Hollywood trip also gave her a chance to drop in on good friend Camryn Manheim of "The Practice." Trading favors, O'Donnell taped a guest appearance for Manheim's show after doing some interviews for her own.

The two then appeared on "Entertainment Tonight" together, where O'Donnell distracted Manheim by making faces at her from off-camera. Too much fun for one day!

Leeza Gibbons recently did another series of shows on AfterCare, which provides therapy for talk show guests, with specialist Jamie Huysman.

Huysman, who also worked with guests of Geraldo Rivera, is now working with Gibbons' production company to develop his own talk show, co-hosted by his mother, psychologist Arlene Huysman.

With many insiders saying therapy is the new genre for talk, Huysman's "Family Affairs" could be the first interactive intervention talk show.

Rosie O'Donnell

Huysman intends to incorporate the Internet, and Gibbons is backing the concept. With her own show facing rock-bottom ratings, could she be looking to her future? Perhaps there is a place for her at "Family Affairs."

A former Rivera guest whom Huysman helped through AfterCare has found a place on "Family Affairs" as an associate producer"."

Stephanie, who agreed to treatment after appearing on the show in a chemically dependent state, arrived at the center in a coma. After three years of struggle, she is clean and sober.

MONDAY'S BEST BETS

Movie: The Audrey Hepburn Story

7 P.M. ON ABC

Jennifer Love Hewitt portrays the Belgian-born beauty who became the toast of British and U.S. theater before taking Hollywood by storm. It dramatizes her rags-to-riches life from her childhood under the Nazis to her reign as a movie queen. Gabriel Macht ("The Others") plays William Holden, her "Sabrina" co-star and off-screen lover, with Eric McCormack ("Will & Grace") as her first husband, Mel Ferrer.

That '70s Show

7 P.M. ON FOX

Kelso (Ashton Kutcher) tries to get Jackie (Mila Kunis) back by writing her a song, but instead of charmed, she's just more confused ... and more inclined to lean on Hyde (Danny Masterson). Eric and Donna (Topher Grace, Laura Prepon) have their own troubles when Eric attempts to prove he wears the pants in the relationship. Wilmer Valderrama also stars in "Kelso's Serenade."

Biography

7 P.M. ON A&E

The encore of "Stephen King" profiles horror fans' Maine man, who has sent shivers down countless spines. While he's written his share of ghost, vampire, werewolf, devil and alien stories, some of King's most frightening tales deal with the demons inside ordinary humans ("Apt Pupil," "Misery"). The program chronicles King's early life, his writing career's rocky start, his rise to literary stardom and the accident that almost sidelined him for good.

Mila Kunis
THAT '70S SHOW

Grapevine

7:30 P.M. ON CBS

A former co-worker who's become a magician casts a spell on Susan's (Kristy Swanson) heart. But now that her mind is finally off David (Steven Eckholdt), guess who's back in town. Thumper (George Eads) is happy to oblige an old girlfriend who wants a final fling before her wedding. David Sutcliffe also stars in "Jack."

Everybody Loves Raymond

8 P.M. ON CBS

The good news for Ray is that Debra's sex drive is in high gear. The bad news is that he suspects another man is the cause. It seems she's at her most interested after sessions with her hunky exercise instructor, and Ray doesn't know whether to be grateful or jealous.

Third Watch

9 P.M. ON NBC

The paramedics and firefighters move heaven and Earth — well, a few walls, anyway — to get an obese woman out of her home and into treatment for her heart trouble. Bobby (Bobby Cannavale) wonders if his brother (Jon Seda) is one of the three men being sought by police in connection with a coffee-shop robbery. Yokas and Doc (Molly Price, Michael Beach) face separate family crises: her husband's drinking and his father's ill health.

TUESDAY'S BEST BETS

The Simpsons
7 P.M. ON FOX

A special all-comedy evening kicks off with the encore of "Saddlesore Galactica." Homer and Bart rescue Duncan, a performing horse, from the state fair and start training him to race. They have their eyes on the winner's circle at the Springfield Derby, but the jockey underground — a group short on stature but long on power — is threatening to make big trouble if Duncan wins.

Buffy the Vampire Slayer/Angel
7 P.M. ON WB

Angel (David Boreanaz) secretly visits Sunnydale to protect Buffy (Sarah Michelle Gellar) from vengeful American Indian spirits that materialize at Thanksgiving in "Pangs." The two-part encore crossover story continues with "I Will Remember You," as an incensed Buffy heads to Los Angeles to confront Angel about the trip. She finds him fresh from a battle with a demon that's given him some new powers ... and possibly a second chance with her.

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E

You've seen the TV movie; now see the real life. The 1997 profile "Audrey Hepburn: The Fairest Lady" remembers the elegant star of "Sabrina," "Roman Holiday," "Breakfast at Tiffany's," "The Nun's Story," "My Fair Lady" and other classics. Nominated five times for Oscars, she won the best actress statuette for "Roman Holiday." Her second Oscar, presented posthumously, was the Jean Hersholt Humanitarian Award.

CITY OF ANGELS

Cary Grant:
A Celebration of a Leading Man
7 P.M. ON AMC

Suave and handsome, with impeccable comic timing, Cary Grant was the man every woman wanted and every man wanted to be. Michael Caine hosts this hourlong profile of one of filmdom's most beloved stars, who was equally at home in screwball comedies and Alfred Hitchcock thrillers.

City of Angels
8 P.M. ON CBS

A senior staffer at the hospital, depressed over being relieved of his duties, decides to relieve the world of his presence. Dr. Turner befriends a homeless man who believes he's the king of England. Dr. Williams exercises his best bedside manner to console a teenage girl who's had her colon removed.

Surviving the Good Times:
A Moyers Report
8 P.M. ON PBS

The 1990s came in with a bust and went out with a boom, but recovery comes more slowly to families than to the economy at large. This special revisits two of them, the Neumanns and the Stanleys of Milwaukee, whose stories of life after layoffs were told in two earlier PBS programs. It's an up-close-and-personal look at how the roller-coaster economy has affected real people emotionally, financially and socially, and what the future may hold.

WEDNESDAY'S BEST BETS

Two Guys and a Girl
7 P.M. ON ABC

Berg and Pete (Ryan Reynolds, Richard Ruccolo) throw a bachelorette bash for buddy Sharon (Traylor Howard), but Berg is incensed when the guest of honor invites groom-to-be Johnny (Nathan Fillion) along. Pete has no time to be angry at the intrusion; he's smitten with the pretty new firefighter, Marti (Tiffani-Amber Thiessen), and seeks a little help with his wooing from Ashley (Suzanne Cryer) in "Two Guys, a Girl and a Bachelorette."

The World's Funniest Game Show Moments
7 P.M. ON FOX

Some game shows have comedy built in, with hired gag writers and celebrity guests (think "Hollywood Squares"). But some of the best laughs to come out of game shows have come from the contestants. Host Richard Dawson looks back at silly moments from "The Newlywed Game," "Let's Make a Deal" and other shows in this hourlong special.

Live From Lincoln Center
8 P.M. ON PBS

"New York City Opera — Puccini's Tosca" puts a 20th-century spin on the timeless tragedy, setting the action in Fascist-era Italy. Tenor Alfredo Portilla and soprano Amy Johnson sing the roles of Cavaradossi and Tosca, the painter and his sweetheart whose love — and lives — are destroyed by an evil police chief (Mark Delavan) on the trail of Cavaradossi's friend, an escaped political prisoner (George Cordes).

Diedrich Bader
THE DREW CAREY SHOW

The Drew Carey Show
8 P.M. ON ABC

A bombshell is dropped on Oswald (Diedrich Bader): He has a son. But he and his friends aren't so sure that the young fellow who has suddenly shown up in his life is actually the fruit of his loins. He's convinced that Oswald's the man, but let's just say Oswald's not the man he resembles.

The West Wing
8 P.M. ON NBC

President Bartlet has just the man (guest star Edward James Olmos) for a vacancy on the Supreme Court. A closer look at the judge's ideology and connections, however, may force him to reconsider. Scandal threatens the White House when a publicity-hungry congressman (guest star Holmes Osborne, "Crazy in Alabama") makes allegations of substance abuse among the staff — hitting a little too close to home for one member. Rob Lowe and John Spencer also star in the encore of "The Short List."

American Justice
9 P.M. ON A&E

"The Life and Death of Teena Brandon" revisits the facts behind the case that inspired the acclaimed film "Boys Don't Cry." Teena Brandon, a k a Brandon Teena, was a young Nebraska woman who had been living as a male until being outed in the newspaper following a misdemeanor arrest.

THURSDAY'S BEST BETS

Diagnosis Murder

7 P.M. ON CBS

One of America's worst nightmares is realized when Regis Philbin accidentally shoots Kathie Lee Gifford in the encore of "Talked to Death." Philbin and Gifford guest star as talk show hosts whose publicity stunt goes awry when someone replaces blanks with real bullets in a stunt gun. Mark and Steve (Dick Van Dyke, Barry Van Dyke) have their work cut out for them finding out who is responsible for the switch, since the chirpy hostess seems to have had dozens of enemies.

Movie: The Cable Guy

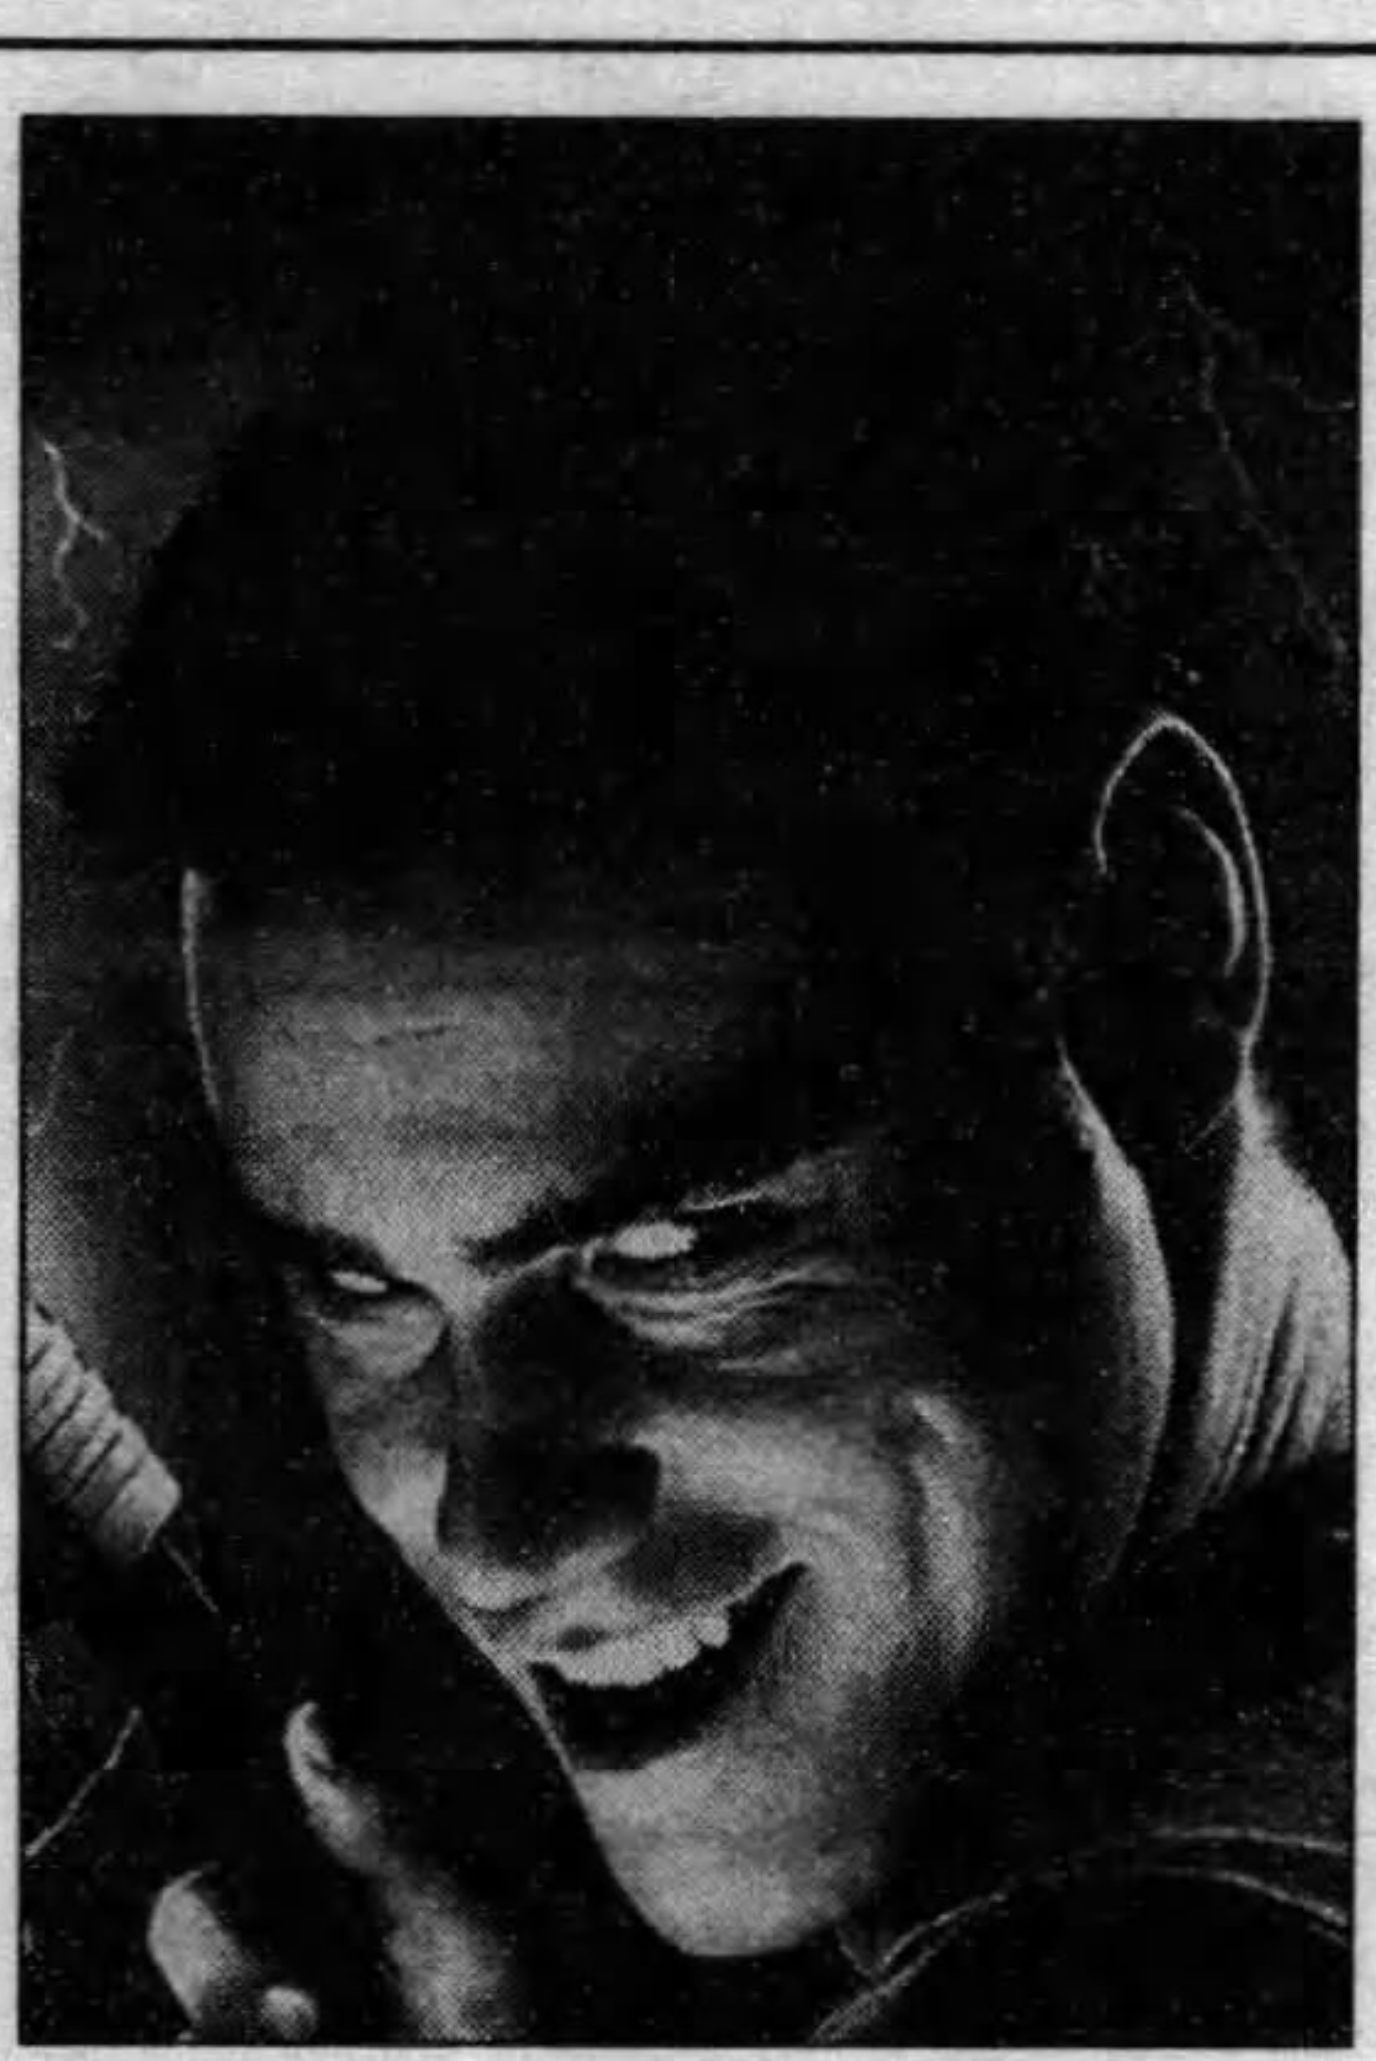
7 P.M. ON FOX

The pesky-psycho story (think "Fatal Attraction") gets a darkly comic twist in this much-hyped 1996 Jim Carrey vehicle. Carrey plays a friendless weirdo who works for the cable company and becomes buddies with an architect (Matthew Broderick) looking to score some free channels. It isn't long before he morphs into the pal from hell. Leslie Mann ("Big Daddy") and Ben Stiller, the film's director, also star.

Cancer: Evolution to Revolution

7 P.M. ON HBO

If you or a loved one has cancer, don't give up. That's the message of this new special, a mix of information and inspiration. It covers both established and experimental treatments and explains how to get information about all the options and pursue them even if the insurance company says no. You'll also meet several success stories, including a man once diagnosed as terminal who's been cancer-free for nine years.



Jim Carrey

THE CABLE GUY

Wonderland

9 P.M. ON ABC

This new drama series from actor-director Peter Berg isn't easy to watch, but it has Emmy written all over it. Set in a mental hospital, it pulls no punches in its portrayal of people in the throes of psychosis and the professional and personal struggles of those who care for them.

ER

9 P.M. ON NBC

Martha Plimpton guest stars in the encore of "The Peace of Wild Things" as a pregnant woman whose unhealthy habits are threatening her baby. Fellow single mom-to-be Hathaway wants to help but gets nowhere with her. Dr. Carter's conscience takes a beating from a nursing-home fire and a patient's request to fudge a diagnosis, while Dr. Benton grapples with the decision to settle his son's paternity.

Love Chronicles

9 P.M. ON A&E

Love is always risky, and in some cases, it's downright dangerous. Whether it's getting involved with the wrong person or getting intimate in the wrong place, the element of peril provides the spice many people crave in their relationships. Bikers, rock stars and others who enjoy living and loving on the edge are spotlighted in "Love in the Danger Zone."

Sibling rivalry is in the air in "Brotherly Shove." Cory (Ben Savage) leaves Eric (Will Friedle) out of a family cleanup project, but instead of being relieved at escaping the work detail, Eric feels rejected. While the Matthews boys are straightening out that mess, Jack and Shawn (Matthew Lawrence, Rider Strong) work on their own brotherly bond. Danielle Fishel also stars.

Kids Say the Darndest Things

7 P.M. ON CBS

Host Bill Cosby takes on a 6-year-old in a wacky spelling bee, plays drill sergeant to two small soldiers, and reads from the book "Grandma, Grandpa and Me — Stuff Kids Tell Us." In the "Kids Explain" segment, youngsters expound on April Fools' Day, the human brain and Albert Einstein — whom one boy confuses with another famous scientist whose name ends in "stein."

Movie: Poltergeist

7 P.M. ON UPN

In 1982, the same year that Steven Spielberg was charming us with "E.T. the Extra-Terrestrial," he was scaring us out of our wits with another tale of otherworldly creatures. He co-wrote and co-produced this story of a suburban family terrorized by ghosts who snatch the youngest daughter. Craig T. Nelson stars with JoBeth Williams and two young actresses whose real lives would end tragically: Heather O'Rourke and Dominique Dunne.

KIDS SAY THE DARNDEST THINGS

Sabrina, the Teenage Witch

8 P.M. ON ABC

Sabrina (Melissa Joan Hart), chafing under the house rules, is transported to a Wild West town and appointed sheriff. Her first official act is to suspend all laws, a move she soon has cause to regret when a particularly annoying bad guy gets on her case. Beth Broderick, Caroline Rhea and Nate Richert also star in "The Wild, Wild Witch."

L.A. Detectives

8 P.M. ON A&E

It's L.A., and they're studying acting, but this is no school for aspiring movie stars. An encore from 1999 follows female vice detectives with the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department as they learn how to portray street prostitutes convincingly in preparation for undercover duty.

NBA Basketball

9:30 P.M. ON TNT

Shaquille O'Neal may have put an end to the race for the NBA's MVP. In a recent game against the Los Angeles Clippers, O'Neal exploded for a career-high 61 points. He shot 24-for-35 from the field and grabbed 23 rebounds, all on his 28th birthday. Trying to stop O'Neal and the Lakers tonight are the Philadelphia 76ers. Allen Iverson, like Shaq, has the ability to take over a game by himself, but the 76ers guard wasn't able to get the job done in a loss to the Lakers in February. Iverson was held to 16 points, including 0-11 shooting in the second half.

SATURDAY'S BEST BETS

The Pretender

7 P.M. ON NBC

In the encore of "Risque Business," Jarod (Michael T. Weiss) becomes a therapist at a sex clinic to investigate an attack on one of the facility's female therapists (guest star Clare Carey, "Coach"). Finding a suspect is easy, but the key to the case can actually be found in a secret that the victim has been keeping for years. Out on the road, Broots (Jon Gries) tries to muster the nerve to reveal his feelings to Miss Parker (Andrea Parker).

Movie: Forces of Nature

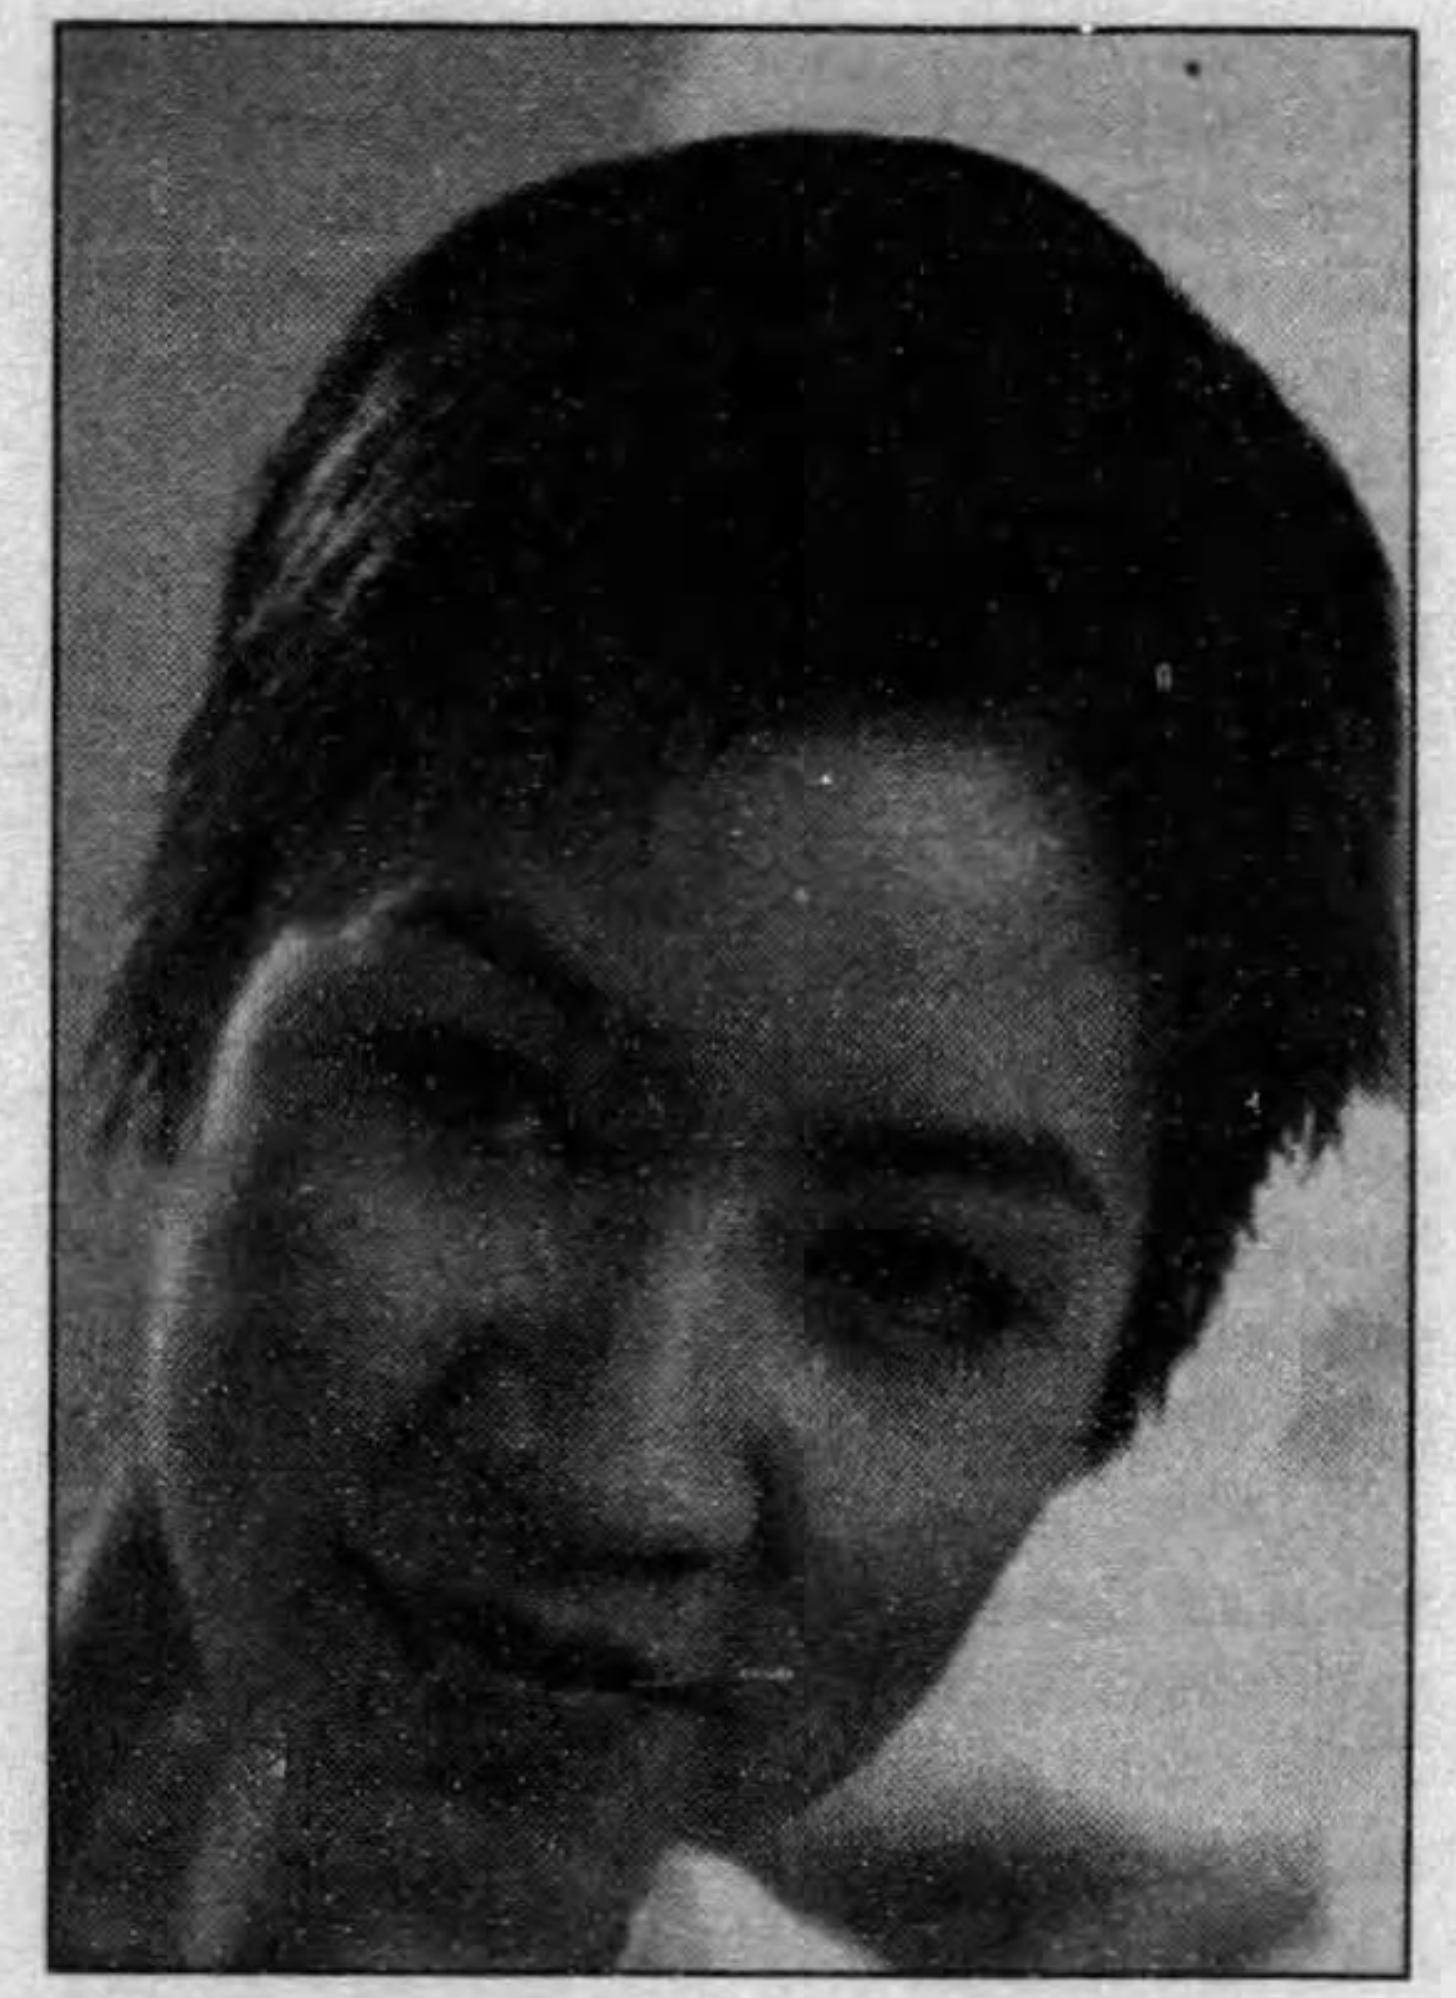
7 P.M. ON HBO

A mild-mannered man (Ben Affleck) trying to get to his own wedding befriends an uninhibited young woman (Sandra Bullock) when their plane is grounded by an accident and an approaching hurricane. That's just the beginning of a long list of disasters that befall this odd couple as they make their way south. Maura Tierney ("NewsRadio," "ER") and Steve Zahn ("Happy, Texas") also star in this goofy 1999 romantic comedy from director Bronwen Hughes ("Harriet the Spy").

Movie: My Cousin Vinny

7 P.M. ON TNT

A rookie lawyer (Joe Pesci) from New York descends upon a small Alabama town to help clear a relative and his buddy (Ralph Macchio, Mitchell Whitfield) of a murder rap. With plenty of circumstantial evidence against the pair, and Vinny's total lack of courtroom experience, things look bleak until a surprise expert witness takes the stand. Marisa Tomei won an Oscar for her delightful portrayal of Vinny's girlfriend in this 1992 comedy. Fred Gwynne also stars.



Michelle Kwan
FIGURE SKATING

Figure Skating

8 P.M. ON ABC

The top female skaters are poised for a showdown as the World Championships come to a close in Nice, France. By the time the ladies' freeskate competition nears its end, the battle for the title may come down to two skaters. Three-time defending U.S. champion Michelle Kwan looks to get back on top at the Worlds, where she finished second last year to Maria Butyrskaya. The other top contender is Russia's Irina Slutskaya, who is coming off a win at the European championships. She performed a triple lutz-triple loop combination to beat Kwan at the Grand Prix final in January.

A&E's Live by Request Starring Trisha Yearwood

8 P.M. ON A&E

She has a new album out this week, but this concert isn't a showcase for Yearwood's new stuff; it's a chance for fans to tell her what they want to hear, whether it's her breakthrough hit, "She's in Love With the Boy," or her rendition of the Oscar-nominated "How Do I Live" from "Con Air." Viewers can submit requests through a toll-free telephone number and special e-mail address. Mark McEwen ("CBS This Morning") hosts the two-hour concert from New York's Sony Studios.
